Health Care Bill Signing Set Today

Former President Truman At Side In Missouri Ceremony

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson packs up the historic health care bill today and flies to Missouri to sign it into law with former President Harry S. Truman at his side.

Truman championed a similar proposal 20 years ago as part of a five- point health program. It included compulsory national health insurance, expansion of Public Health services and federal aid to medical schools and research. All except the health insurance plan were passed.

As approved finally by Congress earlier this week, the 133-page measure Johnson will sign includes hospital care under Social Security for the elderly, a low-cost optional plan to pay doctors' bills for old people and an across-the-board raise in Social Security benefits. Increased Social Security taxes will pay for most of the program.

Johnson was to fly to Kansas City and then drive to the Truman Library at Independence for the signing ceremony. After the bill signing in the library's auditorium, Johnson and Truman planned to confer privately.

A number of congressmen were to accompany Johnson.

The Kansas City Star said Thursday night it had learned that Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey also would attend the ceremony, flying to Kansas City in a separate plane. The White House declined to confirm this, the Star said.

In announcing the President's trip, the White House said Thursday Johnson "has been wanting for some time to visit personally with President Truman" and now has the opportunity.

On Nov. 19, 1945, less than three months after the end of World War II, Truman sent Congress a special message on national health needs.

"We are a rich nation and can afford many things," he said, "but ill health which can be prevented or cured is one thing we cannot afford."

The cornerstone of this program was a compulsory national health insurance program to cover medical, hospital, nursing and laboratory service plus dental costs as fully as possible. It was not restricted to persons 65 or older, as is the newly enacted program.

Kind-Hearted Youths Help Elkton School

LISBON — The Columbiana County Retarded School at Elkton is going to benefit from the generosity of two 13-year-old boys who found a wallet containing $43 in the ruins of the Metzger Hotel fire at Salem last Oct. 22.

The boys — Gary Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Ferry of Lisbon R.D. 1, and Barry Briggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Briggs of the Damascus Rd.—turned the partially-burned wallet with the money over to Salem police at the time.

No one has claimed it in the meantime, so this week the $43 was returned to the youths.

At the suggestion of Mrs. Ferry, they decided to turn it over to Mrs. Ray Diddle of East Liverpool, a teacher at the Elkton school. She, in turn, Thursday presented the money to Robert Bycroft, county welfare director and school supervisor.

Bycroft says it will be deposited in a special fund and will be used for the purchase of equipment for the school.

U.S. Consulate Stoned By 1,000 Indonesians

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—About 1,000 young Indonesians belonging to the Communist-dominated Youth Front stoned the American consulate at Medan, in north Sumatra, today and broke almost all the windows in the two-story building.

An American Embassy spokesman here said a report received from American Consul Theodore C. Heavner said the demonstrators smashed the gate of the fence around the consulate building and invaded the grounds.

Stiffer Law Will Govern Strip Miners

By WILLIAM S. VANCE
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — A tougher law will govern Ohio strip mine operations, starting next fall.

The bitter fight for strip mine legislation ended Thursday afternoon — almost six months to the day after it began — with House and Senate concurrence in a compromise bill reported back by a joint conference committee.

THREE senators, headed by Sen. Robin Turner, R - Seneca, and three House members, led by Rep. Thomas D. Gindlesberger, R-Holmes, hammered out the compromise in a 2½-hour session Thursday after three days of negotiating.

The bill was tossed into conference last week after the House passed an amended version of the Senate's bill.

The dispute centered on House deletion of provisions allowing the chief of the forestry-reclamation division to deny mining licenses if he had probable cause to believe reclamation was impossible or to double the $300-per-acre performancee bond in difficult reclamation areas.

CONFEREES agreed unanimously to restore the "probable cause" section, but the House members prevailed in keeping the double bond provision out of the bill.

Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, D-Belmont, chief sponsor of the bill, said he was pleased with the committee's action.

Sargus, who has been threatened with personal and political reprisals for his sponsorship of the bill, said the "probable cause" represented "the moral fiber of the bill."

A stringent measure when introduced last February, the bill's strength was sapped by coal industry amendments during the long and often bitter infighting. Among the provisions eliminated was one which would have required backfilling of the last cut to eliminate highwalls.

"Since the Senate would not go along with retaining the highwall section, we had to remain adamant on probable cause," Sargus said.

—:—

TURNER called the bill "the finest ever passed by a legislature in Ohio."

Rep. Ralph Fisher, R-Wayne, sponsor of another bill, parts of which were added to the Senate measure, said if it is adequately enforced "it should do the job."

Parts of the bill may be put into effect voluntarily even before it becomes law 90 days after the governor signs it.

Larry Cook, executive director of the Ohio Reclamation Association, which represents most Ohio strip miners, said his organization will recommend "immediate implementation" of some of the bill's "housekeeping provisions."

Cook, who remained opposed to insertion of the "probable cause" action, acknowledged that "it's a pretty good bill—one which I think the operators can live with."

Adjournment Pushed

Ohio School Bus Measure Passed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's lawmakers were clearing their desks today in the hope of calling an end to the long legislative session that started with the snow flying last January.

Most of the major problems were resolved, including controversial school bus legislation which cleared the House Thursday after six months of fireworks heard in virtually every corner of the state.

The lawmakers agreed the school bus issue was by far the hottest of the session, and the 86-45 vote by which the House gave its approval was not indicative of an intensive statewide effort to defeat it.

Opponents still insist the measure extending bus transportation to private and parochial school pupils with public funds will be stricken from the law as unconstitutional.

Under the measure, county or regional coordiantors will administer the program under the State Department of Education.

Ohio's 1965-67 budget carries nearly $4 million to pay the increased transportation costs. The bill sets Aug. 15, 1966, as the earliest date for operation of routes established by coordinators.

Rep. B. A. Broughton, R-Geauga, chairman of the House Education Committee, which conducted numerous hearings on the legislation, led the floor fight against it and described as "an affront to common sense" attempts by supporters to characterize the bill as a safety measure. He asserted it

Wetzel Votes 'No' On School Bus Bill

Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel, R-Columbiana, joined 44 other Ohio House members Thursday afternoon in voting against the bill to extend public school bus transportation to private and parochial school children.

Pegasus 3 Has 'Feathers'

Saturn 1 Rocket Blasts 'Space Bird' Into Orbit

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The Saturn 1 rocket concluded its flight program with a 10th straight success today and hurled into orbit Pegasus 3, a giant luminescent space bird whose "feathers" may one day be plucked by space-walking astronauts.

A year or so from now, if the venture appears feasible, a Gemini astronaut wearing a rocket pack may leave his spacecraft and rip off detachable metal plates carried by Pegasus 3 to bring them back to earth for study.

The satellite joined two earlier Pegasus payloads already in space recording the impact of meteorites to learn how much of a threat they pose to lengthy manned space flight.

If an astronaut could return one or more of the paper-thin aluminum sheets to earth, experts would be able to learn more than radio signals tell.

The mighty Saturn 1 thundered away from its launching pad right on schedule at 8 a.m. EST and the satellite was drilled into orbit about 330 miles high —in the same orbital plane used by Gemini spacecraft.

The Saturn 1 will be succeeded next year by the more powerful Saturn 1B.

Once in orbit, the 23,100-pound satellite extended two wing-like projections to a span of 96 feet and began coursing through space, presenting a broad target for the streaking space particles.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported that both the rocket and the spacecraft performed flawlessly.

Thus Saturn 1 ended with another success its flight program which started Oct. 27, 1961.

Face Peak Readiness

Selected Guard, Reserve Forces Will Be Alerted

Big Losses Suffered By Vietnamese

Viet Cong Attack Training Center 75 Miles From Saigon

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A Viet Cong force attacked a government training center 75 miles southwest of Saigon today and inflicted heavy casualties, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

An estimated 125 to 500 guerrillas hit the Tan An regional force training center with 57mm recoilless rifles and machine guns, the spokesman said.

The Viet Cong sent a suicide demolition team to blow up an ammunition dump at the center but the guerrillas didn't reach the dump, the spokesman reported.

Communist casualties, if any, were not reported.

In a related incident, the spokesman said the Viet Cong blew up a bridge between Tan An and Cao Lanh and harassed Can Lanh with five rounds of 60mm mortar fire and small arms fire. A woman and two children were reported wounded.

Militiamen were sent to the area but no contact with the Viet Cong was reported.

Communist guerrillas also shelled the district headquarters of Nghia Hanh, 85 miles south of Da Nang. Government casualties were termed "very light."

Several thousand men of the U.S. 173rd Airborne Brigade continued a sweep operation 35 miles southeast of Saigon but for the second day no significant contact with the Viet Cong was reported.

The spokesman said one guerrilla was found dead and another wounded. He speculated that the casualties might have been victims of a Okinawa-based B52 bombers that hit the area Thursday.

Military informants quoted intelligence reports as saying that 100 Viet Cong disguised as Buddhist monks gathered in a mountainous area near the operational area. Artillery fire was turned on the area but there were no reports that the target was hit.

An air strike in a nearby area Tuesday hit a Buddhist pagoda and 24 monks were wounded.

U.S. and Vietnamese planes continued to hammer suspected Viet Cong concentrations in South Viet Nam, U.S. military spokesmen reported.

In air attacks on North Viet Nam today, U.S. Air Force and Navy planes hit port facilities, barracks and staging areas, spokesmen said. All planes returned safely, they said.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky announced the South Vietnamese air force will receive its first 25 jet fighter planes from the United States next week.

The force now has only propeller-driven aircraft.

October-Like Chill Still Grips District

District thermometers showed October-like readings once again this morning as temperatures dipped into the 40's in some spots.

Edwin Copeland of Millport, U. S. weather observer, said the overnight low was 43 degrees. Elsewhere, the mercury set new records for low readings on July 30.

A slight warming trend is in sight over the weekend, with a forecast of fair and not quite so cool tonight and a little warmer with scattered showers Saturday.

Copeland said the need for rain continues as the summer drought moves toward August with little sign of relief.

In Pittsburgh Meeting

USW May Serve Notice Of Strike

PITTSBURGH Pa. (AP) — The United Steelworkers executive board and wage policy committee met today to consider serving 30 days strike notice on the basic steel industry.

Under an interim contract that averted a strike May 1, either side is free to serve 30 days notice of termination on or after Aug. 1. That would make midnight Aug. 30 the earliest possible date for the nation's first steel strike since 1959.

Although negotiations reportedly have not progressed as well as expected, serving of strike notice would be routine.

Both sides had hoped, however, that agreement on an industry- wide contract could be reached before Aug. 1 or that progress would be sufficient to make a strike notice unnecessary.

Union sources said Thursday that I. W. Abel, steelworkers president, and chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper had met several times this week. They said it was possible some sort of breakthrough would delay or eliminate a strike notice.

The union and industry have been negotiating on three levels since Abel took command of the union June 1 from David J. McDonald.

There have been talks involving the 10 major steel companies and union bargainers from the various plants aimed at solving long-standing local problems.

Three subcommittees also have worked on contract issues, benefits and subsidiary unit problems.

Abel and a five-man union team have met with Cooper and three industry negotiators at least once a week and more frequently in recent days to review progress at the lower levels and discuss the key issue of wages.

The union is seeking about 18 cents an hour per man in wage and benefit increases in a three-year contract. The industry granted an 11.5 cent an hour increase in the interim contract which is to be assigned either to wages or benefits in the master contract.

Cooper has said, however, that the industry agreed to 11.5 cents without prejudice as whether the ultimate settlement would be more or less.

Driver Loses Leg In Pike Truck Crash

A Rogers trucker, whose leg was amputated to free him from a wrecked rig on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Thursday, remained in "serious" condition today at a New Kensington (Pa.) hospital.

Kenneth Leroy Mackall Jr., 25, of Rogers was pinned in the cab of his tractor-trailer near the Butler Valley Interchange yesterday morning and a physician had to amputate his leg to permit him to be removed.

Mackall, son of Kenneth Mackall of Glenmoor, was headed east on the Turnpike at 8:35 a.m. yesterday when the right front tire of the rig, loaded with bags of concrete, blew out and the truck veered off the highway into a bridge abutment.

The mishap occurred about five miles east of the interchange, according to Pennsylvania state police at Gibsonia.

Mackall was taken to the Citizens General Hospital at New Kensington. His other leg was injured, according to hospital authorities.

There was about $16,000 damage to the truck, police said.

Mackall is married to the former Mary Ann Gorby of Rogers. They have three children. He was self-employed.

Callup Seen As Possible At Pentagon

Highest Priority Slated For Units; Training Scheduled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Certain selected units of the National Guard and Reserve will be brought to peak readiness in the months ahead, officials said today.

This was evidence that a callup of Reserve forces remains a strong possibility for the future, even if President Johnson has decided against such a course for the present.

In effect, the Pentagon will be creating a super-ready Reserve that will have the highest priority.

Units so tapped likely will be given additional weekend training, will get new clothing supplies, new spare parts for their equipment and possibly additional gear from stockpiles and lower priority units.

They would be the first to go into federal service and, officials hope, would be in the best possible shape to meet their deployment objectives — eight to twelve weeks after muster in the case of priority Army guard and Army reserve units.

It was indicated that two or three first-line National Guard infantry divisions may be chosen for the special treatment.

There are four such divisions — the 26th of Massachusetts, the 28th of Pennsylvania, the 42nd of New York and the 30th of North Carolina.

Some of the eight priority infantry brigades in the Army guard and reserve also may be selected to undergo increased readiness preparations.

These eight are the 157th of Pennsylvania, the 187th of Massachusetts, the 191st of Montana and the 205th of Minnesota, all in the Reserve; the 29th of Hawaii, the 69th of Kansas, the 92nd of Puerto Rico and the 258th of Arizona, Virginia and Missouri, all in the guard.

Certain lesser supporting units also may be included.

Elements of the Air National Guard and the Air Reserve may be given additional attention to sharpen their readiness.

It is known that officials of the National Guard Bureau have proposed keeping Air Guard squadrons out of federal service until the 11th hour on grounds they are already in such shape that they can be used in less than 30 days from mobilization.

Most priority units are very close to their manpower ceilings which represent 80 per cent of their mobilization strength.

The additional 20 per cent would be drawn from the Army Reserve manpower pool. Officials said that to avoid delay in active duty training, the 30-man notification period after formal callup could be used to make certain that these rank-fillers would be with their units at the time of entry into federal service.

Policy In Viet Wins Support Of Governors

But Johnson Still Faces Criticism Of Oregon's Hatfield

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has won rousing support for his Viet Nam policy from the nation's governors but still faces the misgivings of Oregon's Mark O. Hatfield, a Republican who favors a vigorous peace move.

Johnson and his senior advisers briefed 49 governors for more than two hours Thursday night and Hatfield, sometimes mentioned as a possible GOP presidential candidate in 1968, was the only one to emerge as something of a fence-sitter.

There were these other Washington developments in the many- sided Viet Nam situation:

The Pentagon will create a super-ready Reserve, it was learned, by bringing selected National Guard and Reserve units to peak readiness during the next few months. Plans indicated a partial callup of the Reserves continues to be a strong possibility for the future.

Another review by Johnson of the Vietnamese war in two or three months, and probably a decision again to increase troop strength there, was expected. Informed speculation was that the U.S. forces, just ordered increased to 125,000 might go to 200,000 by the end of this year.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said "300,000 appears to be the limit for Viet Nam from what I've heard." Russell said he assumes the armed forces will be built up to 3 million from the present 2.6 million.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant told Johnson he is determined to use "all the means at my disposal" to bring about negotiations on Viet Nam. "I believe most strongly that concerted efforts should be made to put an early end to all further hostile military activities,"

Doomed Span Closed Early Due To Damage

LISBON — A township bridge on an abandoned section of the Old Steubenville Pike which will be covered by water when the Highlandtown Lake project is finished, was closed Thursday because of damage over a period of time County Engineer John Ursu said today.

The bridge between Routes 39 and 518 was heavily damaged by excessive use, according to Ursu.

Most priority units are very close to their manpower ceilings which represent 80 per cent of their mobilization strength.

The additional 20 per cent would be drawn from the Army Reserve manpower pool. Officials said that to avoid delay in active duty training, the 30-man notification period after formal callup could be used to make certain that these rank-fillers would be with their units at the time of entry into federal service.

In Pittsburgh Meeting

USW May Serve Notice Of Strike

PITTSBURGH Pa. (AP) — The United Steelworkers executive board and wage policy committee met today to consider serving 30 days strike notice on the basic steel industry.

Under an interim contract that averted a strike May 1, either side is free to serve 30 days notice of termination on or after Aug. 1. That would make midnight Aug. 30 the earliest possible date for the nation's first steel strike since 1959.

Although negotiations reportedly have not progressed as well as expected, serving of strike notice would be routine.

Both sides had hoped, however, that agreement on an industry- wide contract could be reached before Aug. 1 or that progress would be sufficient to make a strike notice unnecessary.

Union sources said Thursday that I. W. Abel, steelworkers president, and chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper had met several times this week. They said it was possible some sort of breakthrough would delay or eliminate a strike notice.

The union and industry have been negotiating on three levels since Abel took command of the union June 1 from David J. McDonald.

There have been talks involving the 10 major steel companies and union bargainers from the various plants aimed at solving long-standing local problems.

Three subcommittees also have worked on contract issues, benefits and subsidiary unit problems.

Abel and a five-man union team have met with Cooper and three industry negotiators at least once a week and more frequently in recent days to review progress at the lower levels and discuss the key issue of wages.

The union is seeking about 18 cents an hour per man in wage and benefit increases in a three-year contract. The industry granted an 11.5 cent an hour increase in the interim contract which is to be assigned either to wages or benefits in the master contract.

Cooper has said, however, that the industry agreed to 11.5 cents without prejudice as whether the ultimate settlement would be more or less.

Driver Loses Leg In Pike Truck Crash

A Rogers trucker, whose leg was amputated to free him from a wrecked rig on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Thursday, remained in "serious" condition today at a New Kensington (Pa.) hospital.

Kenneth Leroy Mackall Jr., 25, of Rogers was pinned in the cab of his tractor-trailer near the Butler Valley Interchange yesterday morning and a physician had to amputate his leg to permit him to be removed.

Mackall, son of Kenneth Mackall of Glenmoor, was headed east on the Turnpike at 8:35 a.m. yesterday when the right front tire of the rig loaded with bags of concrete, blew out and the truck veered off the highway into a bridge abutment.

The mishap occurred about five miles east of the interchange, according to Pennsylvania state police at Gibsonia.

Mackall was taken to the Citizens General Hospital at New Kensington. His other leg was injured, according to hospital authorities.

There was about $16,000 damage to the truck, police said.

Mackall is married to the former Mary Ann Gorby of Rogers. They have three children. He was self-employed.

Policy In Viet Wins Support Of Governors

But Johnson Still Faces Criticism Of Oregon's Hatfield

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has won rousing support for his Viet Nam policy from the nation's governors but still faces the misgivings of Oregon's Mark O. Hatfield, a Republican who favors a vigorous peace move.

Johnson and his senior advisers briefed 49 governors for more than two hours Thursday night and Hatfield, sometimes mentioned as a possible GOP presidential candidate in 1968, was the only one to emerge as something of a fence-sitter.

There were these other Washington developments in the many- sided Viet Nam situation:

The Pentagon will create a super-ready Reserve, it was learned, by bringing selected National Guard and Reserve units to peak readiness during the next few months. Plans indicated a partial callup of the Reserves continues to be a strong possibility for the future.

Another review by Johnson of the Vietnamese war in two or three months, and probably a decision again to increase troop strength there, was expected. Informed speculation was that the U.S. forces, just ordered increased to 125,000 might go to 200,000 by the end of this year.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said "300,000 appears to be the limit for Viet Nam from what I've heard." Russell said he assumes the armed forces will be built up to 3 million from the present 2.6 million.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant told Johnson he is determined to use "all the means at my disposal" to bring about negotiations on Viet Nam. "I believe most strongly that concerted efforts should be made to put an early end to all further hostile military activities,"

October-Like Chill Still Grips District

District thermometers showed October-like readings once again this morning as temperatures dipped into the 40's in some spots.

Edwin Copeland of Millport, U. S. weather observer, said the overnight low was 43 degrees. Elsewhere, the mercury set new records for low readings on July 30.

A slight warming trend is in sight over the weekend, with a forecast of fair and not quite so cool tonight and a little warmer with scattered showers Saturday.

Copeland said the need for rain continues as the summer drought moves toward August with little sign of relief.

Vacation Jobs For Ten Girls High Excitement

NEW YORK (AP) — A summertime job for a schoolgirl is rarely exciting. It's usually hard work, like clerking in a store, baby sitting or camp counseling.

But for 10 young women in New York this summer, vacation jobs are interludes of high excitement and, perhaps, springboards to glamorous careers.

The 10, ranging in age from 16 to 20, are summer replacements in the chorus line of Radio City Music Hall's famed Rockettes.

The girls do four shows a day, seven days a week. Each work day is 11 hours, except on holidays. Then it is longer — more shows are added to the schedule.

After working three weeks, the girls get a week off.

It's a tough routine, but the replacements say they love it.

Case in point: Carolyn Bahr, 16, of Pittsburgh.

"Last summer we came here for a vacation," Carolyn said between shows. "I saw the Rockettes and I just knew I had to be one. So I talked to my (dancing) teacher and came up here for the audition, and here I am."

Carolyn will go back to Pittsburgh's Holy Ghost Academy as a senior, hoping to become a member of the permanent Rockettes company when she's through school.

If she does, it won't be anything new for her family. Her sister Eileen, 20, has been a Rockette for more than two years.

Kathy Christie, 16, of Union, N.J., came to New York to audition with Alice Kozimor, 17, of Kearny, N.J. Both made it. Kathy is a high school junior, Alice a senior.

Another member of the summer group is Carolyn Newton, 16, of Wayne, N. J.

Even among the summer group, there are the old pros. Joan Sheary, 20, a college senior from Worcester, Mass., is in her fourth summer with the Rockettes, and Nancy Conant, 20, a college junior from Jacksonville, Ill., is in her third summer.

"When I was 10," Nancy said, "my family came to New York and I saw the Rockettes. Right then I wanted to try."

The rest of the girls: Holly Patecell, 20, of Flushing, N.Y.; Donna Sarantakes, 17, of Boston; Paula Biglen, 18, of Scranton, Pa., and Connie Jean Wilson, 20, of Columbus Ohio.

Child Hurt In Fall On Bottle, 8 Others Treated At Hospital

A city girl who fell upon a milk bottle was in "satisfactory" condition today at City Hospital, where eight other district residents were treated Thursday after separate mishaps.

Linda Gilmore, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gilmore of Lisbon St., suffered s severe laceration of the right leg when she fell on the bottle at her parents' store.

Warren A. Jones of 414 West Ave., an employe of the Homer Laughlin China Co., was treated last night for bruises of the scalp received when struck by a conveyor chain at Plant No. 6.

Paul Laneve of 584 Campground Rd. was scalded on the left wrist when a radiator blew up.

Darrell Beatty of Smiths Ferry R.D. 1, an employe of a Midland tree service firm, suffered cuts of the finger on a chain saw while at work.

While playing baseball, Thomas Samples, son of Clyde Samples of 424 Indiana Ave., Chester, received a knee injury when he ran into another youngster.

Sharon Marie Morris, daughter of Holland Morris of Georgetown, suffered bruises on the right index finger when it was struck by a piece of metal dropped by another child.

Clyde Tuttle of 123 W. 6th St. was treated for an injury to the right middle finger when a crow bar fell while he was at work.

Deborah Gatrell, son of Michael Gatrell of 906 Ogden St., received scalp abrasions in a fall.

William Freiss, son of Eynon Freiss of the Cannons Mills Rd., suffered a cut forehead in a fall.

Reminder Given On Tax Deadline

City employers were reminded today that Saturday is the deadline for filing statements on amounts withheld from employes' wages for the city income tax during the second quarter.

D. J. Wilkinson, tax commissioner, said response so far from employers has been "very poor" for withheld taxes during April, May and June.

Meanwhile, Wilkinson filed 18 more affidavits in Municipal Court against individuals who failed to file final returns for 1964.

The court will set the date for hearings on the newest series of charges and summonses will be served on the defendants by Bailiff Wilbert Taylor. Following its customary procedure, the court will not publish the names of the defendants until after the summonses have been served.

Randolph To Propose Renaming Of Marshal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W. Va., next week will recommend the reappointment of John Chernenko of Wellsburg as U.S. marshal for northern West Virginia, it was learned here today.

Randolph also recommended Chernenko for the job in 1961.

Compromise Sets Passage Of Voting Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise by Senate-House conferees has cleared the way for passage next week of the administration's voting-rights bill.

The measure would suspend literacy tests and permit federal registration of voters in wide areas of the South to prevent Negroes from being denied their voting rights.

President Johnson has predicted that "Negro voting will double and redouble in years to come" if Negroes take advantage of the bill.

He went before a joint session of Congress in mid-March, at the peak of the Selma, Ala., civil-rights demonstrations, to urge quick action on the measure.

Senate-House conferees appointed to reconcile differences between the bill passed by the Senate May 26 and the bill passed by the House July 9 reached agreement Thursday at their sixth meeting.

The compromise drops a House-approved ban on state poll taxes, but it contains a strengthened congressional finding that the right to vote is denied or abridged by making their payment a requirement for voting.

And, as in the Senate bill, the attorney general is directed to bring immediate court action to challenge the constitutionality of the poll taxes still collected by four states -- Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Virginia — from voters in state and local elections.

A constitutional amendment has outlawed the payment of poll taxes as a requirement for voting in federal elections.

On another major issue in dispute, the House conferees agreed to accept a Senate provision under which persons educated in American flag schools in languages other than English would be able to vote without passing a state's English-language literacy test.

The chief effect of this will be to enable thousands of Spanish-speaking Puerto Ricans in New York City to qualify as voters.

30 Nations Now Giving Help To South Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thirty nations now are giving help to South Viet Nam — three times as many as when Saigon appealed to the non-Communist countries for aid a year ago.

Eight other nations have promised help.

About 700 civilians and 4,000 soldiers from 13 nations besides the United States are on the job in South Viet Nam, according to State Department figures.

Compromise Sets Passage Of Voting Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise by Senate-House conferees has cleared the way for passage next week of the administration's voting-rights bill.

The measure would suspend literacy tests and permit federal registration of voters in wide areas of the South to prevent Negroes from being denied their voting rights.

President Johnson has predicted that "Negro voting will double and redouble in years to come" if Negroes take advantage of the bill.

He went before a joint session of Congress in mid-March, at the peak of the Selma, Ala., civil-rights demonstrations, to urge quick action on the measure.

Senate-House conferees appointed to reconcile differences between the bill passed by the Senate May 26 and the bill passed by the House July 9 reached agreement Thursday at their sixth meeting.

The compromise drops a House-approved ban on state poll taxes, but it contains a strengthened congressional finding that the right to vote is denied or abridged by making their payment a requirement for voting.

And, as in the Senate bill, the attorney general is directed to bring immediate court action to challenge the constitutionality of the poll taxes still collected by four states -- Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Virginia — from voters in state and local elections.

A constitutional amendment has outlawed the payment of poll taxes as a requirement for voting in federal elections.

On another major issue in dispute, the House conferees agreed to accept a Senate provision under which persons educated in American flag schools in languages other than English would be able to vote without passing a state's English-language literacy test.

The chief effect of this will be to enable thousands of Spanish-speaking Puerto Ricans in New York City to qualify as voters.

30 Nations Now Giving Help To South Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thirty nations now are giving help to South Viet Nam — three times as many as when Saigon appealed to the non-Communist countries for aid a year ago.

Eight other nations have promised help.

About 700 civilians and 4,000 soldiers from 13 nations besides the United States are on the job in South Viet Nam, according to State Department figures.

The total of men and materiel from other countries amounts to only a fraction of the huge U.S. contribution, which is expected to reach more than 125,000 men and one billion dollars plus this year, by latest administration figures.

Hoffa Eying High Court In 'Tamper' Case

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa was just one step away today from fulfilling his vow to take his attempted jury-tampering conviction to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Thursday unanimously upheld the conviction, rejecting the 52-year-old labor leader's contentions that he was indicted by an improperly impaneled grand jury and convicted on "tainted" and insufficient evidence.

The Noisiest Summer Yet

Part of the enjoyment of summer is easing into a hammock or tilt-back lawn chair and enjoying the cool evening breeze, quietly reading the newspaper, listening to soothing music or just closing ones eyes and allowing the blessings of nature to seep into the pores.

But the likelihood of realizing these satisfying objectives has decreased in inverse proportion to the number of motorbikes rolling along district streets and highways, irritated suburbanites report.

THESE SAME suburbanites readily concede that the internal combustion engine has worked miracles in improving man's lot through rapid, efficient transportation, and will continue to do so. But they also are quick to point out that the engine serves man best when its loud explosions are muffled.

Our city legislators realized this when they approved a law which reads:

"Sec. 458. (a) Every motor vehicle with an internal combustion engine shall at all times be equipped with a muffler in good working order and in constant operation, and no person shall use a muffler cutout, bypass or similar device upon a motor vehicle on a highway."

The motorbike, despite its misuse by some juveniles and some adults, is apparently here to stay.

Enforcement of Section 458, when the opportunity presents itself, might go far toward restoring sanity in the outlying areas, however.

Suburbanites readily accept the gentle "putt-putt" of most of the motorbikes, as they do the sound of a power mower or a hedge clipper. But it seems inevitable that some disgusted and angry resident will lodge a formal complaint against some non-muffled motorbike driver before the summer is out.

Some one will have to start action soon before the growing number of motorbikes makes the season one continuous "varroooom!"

Who's A Crime Expert?

The national crime commission created by President Johnson has one of the key assignments of this investigative era.

If it does its work well, it's report at the end of 18 months of questioning and evaluating will shut the mouths of all would-be crime experts who have been clouding the problem with guesswork.

There will be, for the first time, an authoritative report on one of the baffling mysteries of the era — why so many Americans, especially young ones, persist in making careers of lawlessness.

They are not driven to crime by actual need. They are not starving. They do not lack a place to find shelter and creature comforts.

Many of the atrociously cruel and destructive acts they are guilty of cannot be explained by any of the standard formulas for explaining crime. The acts are as inexplicable as the savage onslaughts of the few animals that attack and kill for the joy of causing suffering.

Yet even the inexplicable has not discouraged self-proclaimed experts who have a glib explanation for the crime phenomenon in a nation that had hoped to eliminate crime by this time.

The prime cause, as they see it, is never any farther away or harder to spot than their own private peeves.

Their random guesswork has added confusion to the problem.

If the new crime commission does a good job, it will give the nation a solid basis for coming to grips with a problem that never before has been tackled systematically.

Casualties Will Be Relative

Warnings have been issued by military spokesmen and government officials about an increasing number of casualties in the Viet Nam war. The news ahead may be shocking.

The main force of the monsoon offensive against the United States and South Viet Nam's troops has not been felt yet. The war is building up to a climax that may test the poise and composure of every American with a friend or relative in the U.S. forces.

Anticipating the inevitable growth in casualty lists as U.S. forces increase and the pace of the war is stepped up, Defense Department officials have done two things to soften the blow.

War correspondents no longer will be permitted to report casualties as they occur. The bad news will not be transmitted day by day. Instead, casualty lists will be issued only once a week.

Meanwhile, casualties in battle reports will be referred to as light, medium, or heavy, depending on the number of troops engaged in the action.

If nearly all troops in a small group are casualties, the report will say the casualties are "heavy." However, if even more casualties occurred in a larger group, the report will say casualties were "medium." Or they might be reported as "light."

The word will be relative to the size of the group engaged in the action, not the number of Americans killed and wounded.

It Would Be Simpler

When Edward Heath polled two votes over a simple majority in a Conservative party showdown, his rivals bowed out and conceded that he had earned the right to lead his party in the House of Commons.

This is parliamentary government working at top efficiency.

Party leaders are not chosen by roundabout methods in secret conclaves in smoke-filled rooms but by the party's members of the House of Commons.

These are the legislators who must authorize policy and defend it in debate. It is not to be imagined that no one else exerts influence on party affairs. But decisions on party leadership are made by the followers, not by persons on the sidelines, in parliamentary government.

In the same vein of direct responsibility, decisions on national leadership are made by the House of Commons, not by milling delegates in some crowded arena surcharged with intrigue and suspense.

It would be simpler, all things considered, to have parliamentary government.

Whenever it works efficiently, as it so often appears to be working for the British, Americans are half-envious.

But it would be impossible in the United States. Here, the supreme authority resides not in a throne, not in a legislature, not in the presidency but in the sovereign people themselves.

Whatever this system leaves to be desired, it works.

It may even work as well as parliamentary government after a few more generations iron out wrinkles and take in tucks.

It Was Ridiculous

By Truman Twill

The reigning champions of the National Football League are getting in shape on the playing fields of my alma mater.

The 1965 football squad of dear old Hiram College will follow the Cleveland Browns on the field, and I would like to point out a matter of interest to both the pros and the amateurs.

They are romping on turf nurtured with my blood.

Buried in the turf are many of my teeth.

Chemical analysis would show the salty residue of my perspiration.

Some of the inert content would be skin scraped off my knuckles and shins.

Nothing I ever did gave me more satisfaction than football. Thinking back, I never did anything harder to believe.

The whole thing seems absurd at this distance. I wasn't big enough to play football. With few exceptions, none of the boys who played football in those days could qualify to play football today.

One of the greatest football players of all time, Jim Thorpe, would have been too small for modern football. Me . . . it was ridiculous.

The games weren't bad. You had the advantage of playing by the rules under supervision of a referee. It was practice that produced the bloodshed, shattered teeth, abrasions and contusions.

It worked like this:

Dear old Hiram College never had much of a football team. It wouldn't have had any team at all, except for a handul of male students who liked to butt heads.

Only a few of these cared anything about football; they were the team. The rest did it for fun. They were the scrubs.

Their mayhem was only distantly related to football. They slugged, gouged, kneed, knuckled eyes and tried to break noses for the heck of it.

They were violent young mn whose idea of exercise was to knock somebody down and sit on his head. They rabbit-punched, sucker-punched, kidney-punched, twisted knees and clopped people on the Adam's apple for fun.

If you could survive practice with these free-for-all rowdies, you could get through a game supervised by a referee.

But gradually the games became more hazardous. The players kept getting bigger on the other teams, smaller on ours.

It never has been clear to me where the giants are coming from in modern football—from 200 to 300 and more pounds and six feet tall. Even in the Pennsylvania coal fields, where talent scouts used to look for pigskin possibilities, the boys didn't grow that big.

Please bear in mind, gentlemen on the playing fields of Hiram College, that it took a lot of blood, sweat, teeth and skin to grow all that grass. Some of it was mine. In some practice sessions, all of it was mine.

Red Violence Grips British Guiana

By Victor Riesel

GEORGETOWN, B.G.

Here it's high noon all day long—even at midnight. Main Street in the broiling sun is lazily normal but anti-Communists never know who stalks them around corners.

Victor Riesel

No one forgets the plastic bombs and latter day do-it-yourself Molotiv cocktails. They go off regularly. Sometimes every day. They are the blasting burning evidence that Mao has pushed his guerrilla warfare to this stepping stone, northeastern tip of South America.

Only the bombing of the U.S. Consulate and U.S. Information Service reading room gets to the outside world. Here the Americans shrug their shoulders and talk of a new job classification in the foreign service: "Combat Librarian."

THE OUTSIDE WORLD does not hear of the Maoist Communist bombings of the telephone exchange, or of the irrigation viaducts or of the drainage systems which run from the dykes that protect this below sea level area from the ocean.

Nor does the free world hear of its gun-carrying champion—slim, fortyish Richard Ishmael, truly valiant leader of British Guiana's front line union of agricultural and electrical workers known as the Man-Power Citizens' Association. (MPCA).

It's this union, which has half the organized workers in this land as big as Britain, which the local pro - Peiping Communists want to capture or smash. But wiry, little Dick Ishmael, of East Indian parentage, walks tall in the powerful sun with an inner strength and courage that match it.

NOT TOO LONG ago the Communists shot up his car. But they missed him. This agile man did two things swiftly: He telephoned a powerful Communist leader here and told him he'd kill him the next time anyone threw a gun his way. And he began packing a .38 revolver.

On formal occasions, such as greeting friends from overseas, Dick Ishmael replaces the .38 with a smaller derringer - like model, puts it in a black case on his belt and hovers over his visiting friends to make certain no one shoots their way.

Furthermore, Ishmael has trained someone close to him to shoot from the hip— just in case the Communists don't miss the next time. The "other person" has pledged to kill the Communist chief if anything should happen to Ishmael.

It's like that here, though Viet Nam draws all the world headlines. Dick Ishmael is a gentle man, a realist and would not arm himself unless he and the freedoms in which he believes are under assault To help his countrymen he is both high school principal and labor leader.

AS AN EDUCATOR Richard Ishmael heads the Indian Education Trust which runs a "public" institution for some 700 youngsters. The word "Indian" is a misnomer. It is open to all.

As a labor leader Ishmael has led the Man-Power Citizens' Association's physical and ideological fight with the well-financed Communist forces seeking to capture the agricultural and industrial power structures of this land. The MPCA has been right in the storm center of a running battle costing over 200 lives.

That is not all that has made Ishmael the Communists' Public Enemy No. 1. Twice he served two-year terms as head of the British Guiana Trades Union Council, the national labor movement of this land. So he cannot succeed himself. But the working people here wanted him up front. So they named him "Adviser," the only such title in the labor roster of the world.

THERE ARE other men who stride alongside Ishmael. They are the unreported heroes of this front in a land soon to become independent, a land therefore which will have a weak inner police force and militia. Yet it will be a land which will have a voice in world affairs and a vote in the U.N

The Maoist Communists know this country of 600,000 Negroes, East Indians, Chinese, white Portuguese and South American Indians could be the stepping stone to the Latin interior. The Communists know that they could capture it if they capture the labor movement.

So do Richard Ishmael and the men who stand with him. That's why they arm themselves.

THIRTY YEARS AGO — The Calcutta United Presbyterian Church observed its 120th anniversary, with E. M. Davis, a member of the church for 50 years, the speaker.

Forty - two attended the annual reunion and picnic of the Wilson family at Westfield, with Grant Wilson of East Palestine elected president.

An estimated 1,000 homes in the northwestern section of East Liverpool were without water service as the result of a break in a high pressure line leading to the district from the Henry Ave. standpipes.

TEN YEARS AGO — The Board of Public Utilities named Thomas R. Martin of W. 4th St. as a meter reader assistant repairman in the water department.

Miss Margaret Hogan of Georgetown, supervisor of elementary schools in Midland, was guest of honor at an open house at the home of Mrs. Louis Wagner.

Mrs. W. R. Pugh of Buckeye Ave. was appointed curator of the River Museum in Wellsville.

Ragweed

Ragweed is not to be sniffed at.

Every year, from mid-August to the end of September, the pestiferous plant unleashes billions of microscopic grains of pollen upon hay fever sufferers. Allergists estimate that ragweed affects more persons in the United States than does smog.

Ragweed may be especially troublesome this summer — thanks to highways and housing. The prolific weed thrives in freshly - turned soil. Even a gopher's mound may become a seed bed.

With construction of the Interstate Highway System in full swing, millions of tons of earth are being exposed — a boon for ragweed. In fact, some botanists believe that ragweed originally traveled westward across the United States on the soft shoulders of new highways.

The building boom also provides a welcome home for ragweed seed when land is cleared for housing projects.

A major source of ragweed pollen is cereal grain fields. The seeds are planted inadvertently along with the grain and ragweed plants shoot up after the crop is harvested.

Court In Disrepute

By David Lawrence

Little Bench Experience Owned By Justices

Small wonder that the Supreme Court of the United States has steadily fallen into disrepute in recent years as it has developed into an oligarchy of politically rather than judicially minded individuals. Now President Johnson has selected Abe Fortas — his personal friend of long standing who has never had a day's experience on the bench — to be one of the nine justices of the Supreme Court of the United States. This is in line with the unfortunate trend of the past several years.

David Lawrence

Other Presidents besides Mr. Johnson, Republican as well as Democrat, have appointed to the Supreme Court political associates or partisan supporters with a controversial background.

Just what criteria do Presidents use in making appointments to the Supreme Court? They sometimes look for outstanding lawyers rather than experienced judges, but often there are political factors involved. Occasionally a member of the Senate with a legal background is appointed, and several men have gone to the Supreme Court from Congress or from the Cabinet. Every now and then a U.S. attorney general or solicitor general in the Department of Justice has won promotion to the Supreme Court.

SOME OF THESE appointees have made a fine record, and it is possible that Mr. Fortas may turn out to be a well-balanced and fair-minded justice who is able to forget his early espousal of left - wing causes that made him a controversial figure in the New Deal. He is only 55 today and has a long period of time ahead in which to adjust his thinking to judicial doctrines.

Men in the political world, however, are not inclined to abandon their views when they ascend to the bench. As justices, they do not usually in their decisions forsake their passions or preconceived ideologies.

Justice Douglas is as much an outspoken liberal today as he was in New Deal days. On the other hand, Justice Black, an Alabaman who was exposed after his appointment as having once been a member of the Ku Klux Klan, has never shown the slightest sympathy for the objectives of that secret cult.

It would be easier for justices to rid themselves of any previous political prejudices or partisanship if they could serve a few years in the supreme court of a state or in an appeals court of the federal judiciary before being selected for appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States.

THIS correspondent, discussing the prevalent indifference to the need for men of judicial experience for service on the highest court of the land, wrote in a dispatch on Oct. 1, 1953:

"President Eisenhower says he chose Gov. Warren (to be chief justice) because of his middle - of - the - road philosophy. What has that to do with the interpretation of the statutes or the settlement of controversies between citizens, especially when fundamental questions of constitutionality are involved? . . . .

"There is no middle of the road as between right and wrong in determining a judicial question. Congress may pass good or bad laws, yet whether they are constitutional has to be decided not on the basis of any particular philosophy of government but on their actual conformity to the powers set forth in the Constitution."

In that same week in 1953, but before it was known who would be appointed chief justice, a statement was issued by Glenn R. Winters, editor of the Journal of the American Judicature Society, in which he said:

"Today the total prior judicial experience of the members of the Supreme Court consists of Mr. Justice Black's 18 months as a police judge and Mr. Justice Minton's eight years on the federal appellate bench."

Week Of Accomplishments

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

This was the week that was almost incredible for combined presidential action and congressional achievement, when judged against other weeks and even other years.

The President talked to the nation, upped the war in Viet Nam, conferred and consulted, created a crime commission and made a number of appointments of far-reaching importance.

Congress approved some measures which just a few years ago would have seemed impossible of passage.

Every day since the middle of last week President Johnson had been conferring with his advisers on how to cope with the advancing tide of guerrillas in Viet Nam.

In the midst of the conferences things popped and got bigger.

Monday Johnson appointed a 19-man commission to study crime in America and also named Rep. Oren Harris, Arkansas Democrat, to be a federal judge in the U.S. District Court in his home state.

The next day, Tuesday, Johnson signed a bill requiring cigarette packages to carry a health warning. And, to everyone's surprise, he selected Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze, who got his job from President John F. Kennedy in 1962 after he had been mayor of Cleveland five times, to be a judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals in Ohio.

To his cabinet post Johnson named John W. Gardner, Republican, educator, writer and president of the Carnegie Corporation. And for Wednesday, Johnson called a news conference to talk about Viet Nam.

At the news conference he first disclosed that he was sending 50,000 troops to Viet Nam immediately to join the 75,000 already there and was increasing draft calls. Then he warned of more troops being sent and said the United States was determined to stop the guerrillas. At the same time he urged peace talks. This was all carefully prepared and delivered.

But so was what followed: The two big surprises of the day.

1. He was naming a friend of 30 years, attorney Abe Fortas, to the Supreme Court to succeed Arthur J. Goldberg who was plucked off the court by Johnson to succeed the late Adlai E. Stevenson as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

2. He had chosen John W. Chancellor, NBC's chief White House correspondent, to be director of the Voice of America.

Thursday, the President briefed governors on the Viet Nam situation.

Meanwhile, Congress was doing things which will remain memorable in American history and in other years would have seemed sensational not only for their nature but for being lumped all into one week.

Johnson has been so adroit at getting the men in the Capitol to approve what he wants that much of the history-making legislation going through Congress this year seems taken for granted.

This week Congress gave a final okay not only to changes and improvements in Social Security but for the first time created a program of medical care for people 65 or older.

This medical care program, opposed by various forces for two decades, is the most sweeping advance in the social welfare field since Social Security itself was established by Congress in 1935.

On top of this a House and Senate Conference Committee, set up to iron out differences between both bodies, approved a bill to protect Negroes' voting rights in the South, one of the most important civil rights measures in history.

Final, formal approval by both houses will be routine. In agreeing to the bill, the committee knocked out a controversial section banning poll taxes in state and local elections.

Congress also this week approved a four-year, $7.5-billion housing and urban development bill which includes rent subsidies for low-income families. It now goes to Johnson to be signed into law.

In addition, the Senate passed flood control bills, which the House is expected to approve, and the House knocked out a section of the federal labor law that permits states to ban union shops. This won't be final until the Senate acts. There may be a fight there.

The Noisiest Summer Yet

Part of the enjoyment of summer is easing into a hammock or tilt-back lawn chair and enjoying the cool evening breeze, quietly reading the newspaper, listening to soothing music or just closing ones eyes and allowing the blessings of nature to seep into the pores.

But the likelihood of realizing these satisfying objectives has decreased in inverse proportion to the number of motorbikes rolling along district streets and highways, irritated suburbanites report.

THESE SAME suburbanites readily concede that the internal combustion engine has worked miracles in improving man's lot through rapid, efficient transportation, and will continue to do so. But they also are quick to point out that the engine serves man best when its loud explosions are muffled.

Our city legislators realized this when they approved a law which reads:

"Sec. 458. (a) Every motor vehicle with an internal combustion engine shall at all times be equipped with a muffler in good working order and in constant operation, and no person shall use a muffler cutout, bypass or similar device upon a motor vehicle on a highway."

The motorbike, despite its misuse by some juveniles and some adults, is apparently here to stay.

Enforcement of Section 458, when the opportunity presents itself, might go far toward restoring sanity in the outlying areas, however.

Suburbanites readily accept the gentle "putt-putt" of most of the motorbikes, as they do the sound of a power mower or a hedge clipper. But it seems inevitable that some disgusted and angry resident will lodge a formal complaint against some non-muffled motorbike driver before the summer is out.

Some one will have to start action soon before the growing number of motorbikes makes the season one continuous "varroooom!"

Who's A Crime Expert?

The national crime commission created by President Johnson has one of the key assignments of this investigative era.

If it does its work well, it's report at the end of 18 months of questioning and evaluating will shut the mouths of all would-be crime experts who have been clouding the problem with guesswork.

There will be, for the first time, an authoritative report on one of the baffling mysteries of the era — why so many Americans, especially young ones, persist in making careers of lawlessness.

They are not driven to crime by actual need. They are not starving. They do not lack a place to find shelter and creature comforts.

Many of the atrociously cruel and destructive acts they are guilty of cannot be explained by any of the standard formulas for explaining crime. The acts are as inexplicable as the savage onslaughts of the few animals that attack and kill for the joy of causing suffering.

Yet even the inexplicable has not discouraged self-proclaimed experts who have a glib explanation for the crime phenomenon in a nation that had hoped to eliminate crime by this time.

The prime cause, as they see it, is never any farther away or harder to spot than their own private peeves.

Their random guesswork has added confusion to the problem.

If the new crime commission does a good job, it will give the nation a solid basis for coming to grips with a problem that never before has been tackled systematically.

Casualties Will Be Relative

Warnings have been issued by military spokesmen and government officials about an increasing number of casualties in the Viet Nam war. The news ahead may be shocking.

The main force of the monsoon offensive against the United States and South Viet Nam's troops has not been felt yet. The war is building up to a climax that may test the poise and composure of every American with a friend or relative in the U.S. forces.

Anticipating the inevitable growth in casualty lists as U.S. forces increase and the pace of the war is stepped up, Defense Department officials have done two things to soften the blow.

War correspondents no longer will be permitted to report casualties as they occur. The bad news will not be transmitted day by day. Instead, casualty lists will be issued only once a week.

Meanwhile, casualties in battle reports will be referred to as light, medium, or heavy, depending on the number of troops engaged in the action.

If nearly all troops in a small group are casualties, the report will say the casualties are "heavy." However, if even more casualties occurred in a larger group, the report will say casualties were "medium." Or they might be reported as "light."

The word will be relative to the size of the group engaged in the action, not the number of Americans killed and wounded.

It Would Be Simpler

When Edward Heath polled two votes over a simple majority in a Conservative party showdown, his rivals bowed out and conceded that he had earned the right to lead his party in the House of Commons.

This is parliamentary government working at top efficiency.

Party leaders are not chosen by roundabout methods in secret conclaves in smoke-filled rooms but by the party's members of the House of Commons.

These are the legislators who must authorize policy and defend it in debate. It is not to be imagined that no one else exerts influence on party affairs. But decisions on party leadership are made by the followers, not by persons on the sidelines, in parliamentary government.

In the same vein of direct responsibility, decisions on national leadership are made by the House of Commons, not by milling delegates in some crowded arena surcharged with intrigue and suspense.

It would be simpler, all things considered, to have parliamentary government.

Whenever it works efficiently, as it so often appears to be working for the British, Americans are half-envious.

But it would be impossible in the United States. Here, the supreme authority resides not in a throne, not in a legislature, not in the presidency but in the sovereign people themselves.

Whatever this system leaves to be desired, it works.

It may even work as well as parliamentary government after a few more generations iron out wrinkles and take in tucks.

It Was Ridiculous

By Truman Twill

The reigning champions of the National Football League are getting in shape on the playing fields of my alma mater.

The 1965 football squad of dear old Hiram College will follow the Cleveland Browns on the field, and I would like to point out a matter of interest to both the pros and the amateurs.

They are romping on turf nurtured with my blood.

Buried in the turf are many of my teeth.

Chemical analysis would show the salty residue of my perspiration.

Some of the inert content would be skin scraped off my knuckles and shins.

Nothing I ever did gave me more satisfaction than football. Thinking back, I never did anything harder to believe.

The whole thing seems absurd at this distance. I wasn't big enough to play football. With few exceptions, none of the boys who played football in those days could qualify to play football today.

One of the greatest football players of all time, Jim Thorpe, would have been too small for modern football. Me . . . it was ridiculous.

The games weren't bad. You had the advantage of playing by the rules under supervision of a referee. It was practice that produced the bloodshed, shattered teeth, abrasions and contusions.

It worked like this:

Dear old Hiram College never had much of a football team. It wouldn't have had any team at all, except for a handul of male students who liked to butt heads.

Only a few of these cared anything about football; they were the team. The rest did it for fun. They were the scrubs.

Their mayhem was only distantly related to football. They slugged, gouged, kneed, knuckled eyes and tried to break noses for the heck of it.

They were violent young mn whose idea of exercise was to knock somebody down and sit on his head. They rabbit-punched, sucker-punched, kidney-punched, twisted knees and clopped people on the Adam's apple for fun.

If you could survive practice with these free-for-all rowdies, you could get through a game supervised by a referee.

But gradually the games became more hazardous. The players kept getting bigger on the other teams, smaller on ours.

It never has been clear to me where the giants are coming from in modern football—from 200 to 300 and more pounds and six feet tall. Even in the Pennsylvania coal fields, where talent scouts used to look for pigskin possibilities, the boys didn't grow that big.

Please bear in mind, gentlemen on the playing fields of Hiram College, that it took a lot of blood, sweat, teeth and skin to grow all that grass. Some of it was mine. In some practice sessions, all of it was mine.

This medical care program, opposed by various forces for two decades, is the most sweeping advance in the social welfare field since Social Security itself was established by Congress in 1935.

On top of this a House and Senate Conference Committee, set up to iron out differences between both bodies, approved a bill to protect Negroes' voting rights in the South, one of the most important civil rights measures in history.

Final, formal approval by both houses will be routine. In agreeing to the bill, the committee knocked out a controversial section banning poll taxes in state and local elections.

Congress also this week approved a four-year, $7.5-billion housing and urban development bill which includes rent subsidies for low-income families. It now goes to Johnson to be signed into law.

In addition, the Senate passed flood control bills, which the House is expected to approve, and the House knocked out a section of the federal labor law that permits states to ban union shops. This won't be final until the Senate acts. There may be a fight there.

2 Gave Birth To Quintuplets

Women In Five Countries Pregnant In Use Of Drug

LONDON (AP) — Women in at least five countries are reported to have become pregnant after taking a fertility drug used by two women who gave birth to quintuplets this week. Multiple births appear likely in a number of the cases.

Four of the five quintuplets born Thursday to a Swedish woman died within a few hours. The survivor was a girl. The Swedish quints were 11 weeks premature and weighed between 2 pounds and 2 pounds 10 ounces. The mother's identity has not been announced.

The boy and four girls born three days ago to Mrs. Samuel Lawson in Auckland, New Zealand, were reported "just fine" today. They were seven weeks premature and weighed between 3 pounds 3 ounces and 4 pounds 3 ounces.

Both women had been given a pituitary hormone extract developed in Sweden and known in some countries as Gonadotrophin. Injected into the bloodstream, it aids some infertile women who normally are unable to produce an egg cell.

Several New Zealand women are pregnant after taking the treatment. Some have been told they may have more than one baby. But their doctors at National Women's Hospital do not expect more than triplets.

The hormone treatment also is being given to women in the United States, Britain and Australia.

An infertility clinic in New York reported that 15 of the 21 women treated have conceived, 7 had given birth so far, and 4 had multiple births. One, Mrs. Martin Brecker of New York, had quadruplets.

A similar ratio of multiple births was reported by the Swedish doctor who developed the treatment, Prof. Carl-Axel Gemzell, 54, of Uppsala University. He said 50 of 100 women he treated became pregnant and 25 gave birth to twins or triplets.

A Melbourne, Australia, doctor reported that he has been using the drug since April 1963. He said seven previously childless wives had conceived and two had twins.

A British experiment in the use of the drug is being conducted by Birmingham University's department of obstetrics and by the government-sponsored Medical Research Council. The department said it had treated 24 previously infertile women. Ten have had babies — twins in two cases — and six others are pregnant, it said.

The research council said one dose of the drug costs about $1,400, and the cost of the trials is borne by the council.

Utah was admitted to the Union only after it had abolished polygamy.

Judge Studies Police Case In Bogalusa

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A federal judge ponders today what action to take against Bogalusa police officials convicted of civil contempt for ignoring attacks on civil rights pickets.

U. S. Asst. Atty. Gen. John Doar and lawyers for the Congress of Racial Equality drew up a list of sanctions for submission to Dist. Judge Herbert Christenberry.

The two top police officials of the southeast Louisiana city, Chief Claxton Knight and Safety Commissioner Arnold Spiers, were found guilty Thursday of ignoring an injunction issued by Judge Christenberry July 10.

The injunction directed police to protect legal civil rights demonstrators.

A rookie Bogalusa policeman, Donald Penton, also was convicted of civil contempt for standing by while a barber hosed water on two white pickets at a shopping center about a block from police headquarters.

John Martzell, attorney for Knight and Spiers, said he had no idea what the sanctions might involve. He added, however, that Doar may have indicated his position in arguments at the conclusion of evidence presented Thursday.

Doar criticized officials for what they did not do to maintain order, contending that Bogalusa's police force needs a communications network, an inspection system whereby Knight and Spiers can see what is being done, a system of discipline, and an efficient system of communication with state police.

Knight, Spiers and Penton also will face criminal contempt charges in connection with Christenberry's order later this year.

In civil contempt, the judge usually specifies what a defendant must do to avoid punishment. If he does it, punishment may be withheld. Criminal contempt convictions mete out punishment.

Judge Fires New Warning At Taxpayers

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today warned taxpayers that those charged with violations of the city income tax ordinance will be fined even though they have paid the tax prior to their court appearance.

The judge announced his decision to levy fines after fining two tax defendants who were brought into court on bench warrants after they had failed to appear Wednesday.

"The day of only paying court costs is over. It's not fair to other taxpayers who pay the tax on time to have you people who refuse to pay the tax until you are charged escape with court costs only."

Fines of $10 and costs each were levied against Frank Christy, 740 Cartwright St., and Thomas White, 716 Sophia St.

Both had been served summonses to appear for hearings Wedneday but had failed to appear and Judge Chertoff ordered bench warrants issued for their arrest.

Questioned by the judge on why he failed to appear, Christy told the court that he was sleeping. He shook his head in disagreement when Chertoff commented that he had no respect for the court. He produced a receipt showing he had paid the tax.

In levying the fine, the judge told Christy, "I am imposing this fine because of the disrespect you showed the court. The next time you are ordered to appear in court, and I hope you aren't, you had better show up."

White, who told the court he had paid the tax Thursday, said he failed to appear Wednesday because he was attending a funeral.

Vandals Damage Car Parked At Chester

A 1965 auto belonging to Mrs. Debra Poole was damaged early this morning by vandals who broke the windshield, a side window and a rear tail-light, Chester police reported. The trunk lid was also dented.

The car, which was parked in front of the Poole residence at 531 5th St., apparently was struck with a hammer or similar instrument, Audley Campbell, investigating patrolman, said.

Campbell was called about 2:30 a.m. by a neighbor of Mrs. Poole who said she saw three persons running from the scene.

More Facilities Being Planned At Wellsville Park

Wellsville's Hammond Park Commission made plans to have several new facilities added to the park by 1966, with the assistance of the Columbiana County Community Economic Development Committee during a meeting Wednesday night at Cornegie Library.

Mrs. Helen Welch, commission chairman, said the Development Committee will provide a large part of the financial aid for installation of a swimming pool, restrooms, water fountains and the general beautification of the park.

In other business, Robert Lewis reported a check for $150 had been allotted for grass cutting in the park. He added that a new power mower had also been purchased along with new picnic tables.

It was suggested that a letter be sent to Wellsville City Council to fill two vacancies on the commission.

Ohioan's Slaying Case Goes To Jury Today

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—The first-degree murder trial of Billy Ray Babson, a Cincinnati, Ohio, welder accused of slaying a Tampa policeman, may reach the jury today.

The defense rested its case Thursday without calling a single witness. Babson's attorney had indicated during the first three days of the trial that he would call the accused man to testify but gave no reason for not doing so.

The policeman, William Krikava, 32, was shot and killed last Jan. 1 after the officer surprised Babson and his wife in a Tampa dress shop.

Babson's wife, Janet, 33, is to be tried in September.

The first and most famous lighthouse in history was at Alexandria, Egypt.

The Beaver County Board of Education has hired Kenneth Kurtz of Hookstown as the first public school psychologist in that area for service in the program for the handicapped.

The Hookstown man is a certified public school psychologist, serving the past three years in the South Side Joint School District as director of guidance.

He was employed last year at the Warrendale Youth Development Center and has worked this summer in the county program on a per day basis. He also served for three years in the Monongahela School District.

Greek Premier Says He Doesn't Intend To Resign

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — George Athanasiadis Novas, Greece's new premier, stubbornly held on to his job today although apparently facing defeat in a parliamentary vote of confidence.

The premier, 72, told newsmen Thursday night he had "no intention of resigning" after 143 of the 170 deputies from his Center Union party were reported planning to vote against him. Judge Fires New Warning At Taxpayers

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today warned taxpayers that those charged with violations of the city income tax ordinance will be fined even though they have paid the tax prior to their court appearance.

The judge announced his decision to levy fines after fining two tax defendants who were brought into court on bench warrants after they had failed to appear Wednesday.

"The day of only paying court costs is over. It's not fair to other taxpayers who pay the tax on time to have you people who refuse to pay the tax until you are charged escape with court costs only."

Fines of $10 and costs each were levied against Frank Christy, 740 Cartwright St., and Thomas White, 716 Sophia St.

Both had been served summonses to appear for hearings Wedneday but had failed to appear and Judge Chertoff ordered bench warrants issued for their arrest.

Questioned by the judge on why he failed to appear, Christy told the court that he was sleeping. He shook his head in disagreement when Chertoff commented that he had no respect for the court. He produced a receipt showing he had paid the tax.

In levying the fine, the judge told Christy, "I am imposing this fine because of the disrespect you showed the court. The next time you are ordered to appear in court, and I hope you aren't, you had better show up."

White, who told the court he had paid the tax Thursday, said he failed to appear Wednesday because he was attending a funeral.

Vandals Damage Car Parked At Chester

A 1965 auto belonging to Mrs. Debra Poole was damaged early this morning by vandals who broke the windshield, a side window and a rear tail-light, Chester police reported. The trunk lid was also dented.

The car, which was parked in front of the Poole residence at 531 5th St., apparently was struck with a hammer or similar instrument, Audley Campbell, investigating patrolman, said.

Campbell was called about 2:30 a.m. by a neighbor of Mrs. Poole who said she saw three persons running from the scene.

More Facilities Being Planned At Wellsville Park

Wellsville's Hammond Park Commission made plans to have several new facilities added to the park by 1966, with the assistance of the Columbiana County Community Economic Development Committee during a meeting Wednesday night at Cornegie Library.

Mrs. Helen Welch, commission chairman, said the Development Committee will provide a large part of the financial aid for installation of a swimming pool, restrooms, water fountains and the general beautification of the park.

In other business, Robert Lewis reported a check for $150 had been allotted for grass cutting in the park. He added that a new power mower had also been purchased along with new picnic tables.

It was suggested that a letter be sent to Wellsville City Council to fill two vacancies on the commission.

Ohioan's Slaying Case Goes To Jury Today

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—The first-degree murder trial of Billy Ray Babson, a Cincinnati, Ohio, welder accused of slaying a Tampa policeman, may reach the jury today.

The defense rested its case Thursday without calling a single witness. Babson's attorney had indicated during the first three days of the trial that he would call the accused man to testify but gave no reason for not doing so.

The policeman, William Krikava, 32, was shot and killed last Jan. 1 after the officer surprised Babson and his wife in a Tampa dress shop.

Babson's wife, Janet, 33, is to be tried in September.

Board Of Health Rejects Milk Distribution Permit

An application for a city milk distribution permit was rejected Thursday night by the Board of Health in a 3-1 vote.

The permit had been filed by Fairmont Foods Co., which has a district office in Parkersburg and planned to deliver milk to a chain market in the city.

The motion was made by Paul Zehnder and seconded by Frank Dales, with Dr. C. M. Mayberry joining in voting against granting the permit. Dr. J. Keith Rugh, chairman, voted in favor. The fifth board member, Ila Johnston, was absent.

In denying the application, board members said they feel the city already has an excessive number of milk distributors. Members said at present there are 15 permitholders.

Members said the board's staff already is one man short and added that granting the new permit to the firm, which has 180 suppliers, would create more work than the department could handle.

Questioned by the board, Dan Huffman, a representative of Fairmont Foods, said the milk would be shipped from the Athens (Ohio) plant and would be bottled under the private label of the market.

Board members also decided to have Gene Smith and Jack Bonar, sanitarians, compile a list of sewage complaints caused by septic tanks for presentation to City Council for possible remedial action.

Mrs. Luella Bevan, registrar of vital statistics, reported 31 males and 29 females were born in the city between June 17 and July 15, while 15 males and 17 females died during the same period.

Smith reported that he investigated 134 complaints and said all milk samples checked in the last month were satisfactory. Bonar reported that he made 113 investigations.

Miss Selma Ladzinske, health nurse, said she investigated 105 cases and complaints.

Smith will attend a course on solid waste disposal Sept. 20-24 in Columbus.

The next meeting will be Aug. 19.

Gov. Scranton Signs Action Raising Legislative Pension

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Scranton signed into law Thursday the controversial legislative pension bill, giving state lawmakers a 50 per cent increase in their monthly benefits.

Signed without comment, the bill would raise legislative pensions for House and Senate members to $37.50 a month for each year of service.

However, two stipulations were included at the insistence of Scranton.

First — no lawmaker would be entitled to receive more than $12,000 a year in pension, no matter how long his service in the General Assembly.

Second — the measure as signed requires a minimum of eight years service before a legislator can qualify to collect benefits at the age of 50.

The signing climaxes weeks of infighting between Scranton and legislative leaders which saw one bill recalled from the governor because of his opposition to an unlimited ceiling on the amount a lawmaker could receive in one year.

The original bill removed the old $6,000-a-year limit and would have allowed any lawmaker with two or more years of service to qualify.

Scranton's objection was that a lawmaker could have collected more in pension than he was making in salary after 14 years under the original bill at age 50.

The new bill would limit lawmakers to make only as much as their combined salary and expense allowance after 26 years of service.

Power Firm Takes Action For Rate Cuts

Proposed rate reductions have been filed by the Allegheny Power System in West Virginia and three other states which would result in a decrease of rates for some 3,300 customers of the Monongahela Power Co. in the Chester, Newell and Pughtown areas.

Improved methods, greater efficiency in operation and 1965 federal income tax changes are cited as reasons for the proposed cuts.

For residential customers, the rate for the first 30 kilowatt hours would be lowered from 5 to 4.8 cents. Lower rates for electrically - heated homes, churches and schools also would be in effect, along with some industrial rates.

is "no more than direct aid to nonpublic schools."

The $635 million school foundation bill, a measure earmarking $280 million for capital improvements in the next two years, and House reapportionment were the biggest items demanding attention prior to adjournment. Senators were to vote today on their reapportionment plan.

A joint committee worked until early today with the school bill while senators conferred both on the floor and in caucuses on how to spend capital improvement funds approved by voters in the May 4 primary.

Senate Education Committee Chairman Oakley C. Collins, R-Lawrence, hinted agreement was near on a compromise bill adding about $108 million to the school foundation program.

Otherwise, loose ends were fairly well tied together.

Both houses agreed to conference committee reports and completed passage of a toughened strip mine control bill. The committee reinstated a provision allowing the Reclamation Division chief to deny licenses for mining on lands deemed not reclaimable.

The Senate and House also accepted conference reports on bills boosting the pay of elected state officials and setting penalties for threats to damage property.

Only change in the salary measure set the new salary of the lieutenant governor, who now gets $8,000, at $17,000 instead of $20,000 as voted by the Senate.

The Senate gave solid support to three horse racing bills Thursday night, returning them to the House for expected concurrence on minor amendments.

One would increase the number of racing days for each Ohio track from 44 to 50 and establish a state fund to provide bigger purses in hopes of attracting better horses.

The others would create another state fund to improve thoroughbred breeding and eliminate a requirement for photographing races at harness tracks with an average daily handle of less than $150,000.

Senators added their approval to House measures boosting the strength of the Highway Patrol from 800 to 850 over a two-year period, permitting juvenile court employes to participate in delinquency programs, increasing the pay of jurors from $5 to $10 a day, and requiring yellow flashing lights on rural mail delivery vehicles.

Board Of Health Rejects Milk Distribution Permit

An application for a city milk distribution permit was rejected Thursday night by the Board of Health in a 3-1 vote.

The permit had been filed by Fairmont Foods Co., which has a district office in Parkersburg and planned to deliver milk to a chain market in the city.

The motion was made by Paul Zehnder and seconded by Frank Dales, with Dr. C. M. Mayberry joining in voting against granting the permit. Dr. J. Keith Rugh, chairman, voted in favor. The fifth board member, Ila Johnston, was absent.

In denying the application, board members said they feel the city already has an excessive number of milk distributors. Members said at present there are 15 permitholders.

Members said the board's staff already is one man short and added that granting the new permit to the firm, which has 180 suppliers, would create more work than the department could handle.

Questioned by the board, Dan Huffman, a representative of Fairmont Foods, said the milk would be shipped from the Athens (Ohio) plant and would be bottled under the private label of the market.

Board members also decided to have Gene Smith and Jack Bonar, sanitarians, compile a list of sewage complaints caused by septic tanks for presentation to City Council for possible remedial action.

Mrs. Luella Bevan, registrar of vital statistics, reported 31 males and 29 females were born in the city between June 17 and July 15, while 15 males and 17 females died during the same period.

Smith reported that he investigated 134 complaints and said all milk samples checked in the last month were satisfactory. Bonar reported that he made 113 investigations.

Miss Selma Ladzinske, health nurse, said she investigated 105 cases and complaints.

Smith will attend a course on solid waste disposal Sept. 20-24 in Columbus.

The next meeting will be Aug. 19.

Ohio Doctors Blast U.S. On Rights Oath

COLUMBUS (AP) — The Ohio State Medical Association Thursday slammed the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) as "attempting to make second-class citizens" of Ohio physicians.

At the crux of the association's ire was an HEW directive to the Ohio Department of Public Welfare to obtain signed agreements from doctors, noting that they will comply with provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

It directs the department to withhold payment of fees to doctors practicing discrimination among welfare cases.

At a special press conference, Dr. Henry A. Crawford of Cleveland, association president, said the directive would make "second-class citizens" of Ohio's doctors, adding:

"It's the beginning of a harrassment of doctors. . .a takeover by the federal government." He charged that HEW is accusing doctors of practicing discrimination beforehand.

He described as "insulting" an HEW directive ordering the Ohio welfare department to obtain from any physician treating welfare patients a signed agreement that he, "having been fully informed of the practices prohibited by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, hereby agrees to comply with the provisions of the act and the regulations pursuant thereto."

Dr. Crawford said the association made "three concrete proposals to the state welfare department, and that "these proposals were acceptable to the Ohio department but were summarily rejected by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare."

One Of Castro's Early Governors Rescued On Raft

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — One of the early provincial governors in Fidel Castro's regime was rescued after 12 days on a four-foot innertube raft, just before he had given up hope and decided to swim for shore.

"He was hysterical — with joy I guess," said Tom Miller, the skipper of a private yacht that spotted Luis Casas Thursday. Casas was waving a five-gallon water can to catch the sun's reflection.

"He told me later he planned to abandon the raft this evening (Thursday)," Miller said. "He could see the lights of Miami and he was going to try swimming ashore."

Casas, 34, blistered by the sun and wearing only ragged green pants, was greeted at the docks by his exiled sister, Grace, who fled Camaguey Province with him in 1960.

He was governor of Camaguey in 1959 and 1960 shortly after Castro took power. After he and his sister fled their hometown, he was arrested in Havana and convicted of anti-Castro activity.

It is 60 feet from the foul line to the headpin on a regulation bowling lane.

Kiwanians Open Ticket Sale For Hole-In-One Golf Event

Tickets for the Kiwanis Club's public "Hole - In - One" contest Sept. 4 were distributed during the meeting Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Announcement was made of seven teams which will sell tickets for the event at the Pugh Driving Range in Calcutta. Funds raised will go for the club's youth welfare projects.

Rowland Kaufman, ticket chairman, said the teams and captains will be Harold Allison's "Sam Sneads," Colin Neal's "Tommy Lemas," Ronald Mason's "Gary Players," Roy Cooper's "Jack Nicklauses," Glenn Waight's "Billy Caspers," Frank Irving's "Arnold Palmers" and Jim Reaney's "Ben Hogans."

A top prize of $250 will be awarded the first person to sink a hole-in-one in the golf driving event and prizes will be awarded men and women for closeness to the cup.

Jim Roslund is general chairman.

James C. Zukosky of Youngstown, a representative of the American Cyanamid Co.'s Lederle Laboratories, spoke on research in the drug industry at yesterday's meeting.

He pointed out that the development of new pharmaceuticals has added 22 years to the life span of Americans since 1900 and helped physicians save the lives of three million in the U.S. in the last 20 years.

"Behind every new drug reaching your pharmacy, the industry has spent some $6 million in research and development," he declared.

He cited the importance of competition in the drug industry for spurring research. "If another company comes up with a better product, you're just out of luck."

The firms devote three main efforts to research — money, time and the right atmosphere.

In 1963 the industry invested $257 million in research, he said. A tremendous amount of time is required to find potential new drugs and test them, he added. And the firms take special efforts to obtain the right kind of research experts, allow them freedom of work and the latest equipment.

He said many of the present drugs will be obsolete in five years, but new and better ones will be available. "Diseases such as cancer, heart trouble and mental illness will be conquered in time through the combined efforts of physicians, medical research scientists and the drug industry," the speaker declared.

Zukosky was introduced by Cooper.

'Susie' Returns, But Her 8 Pups Are Given Away

"Susie," the wandering wirehair of Price St. Ext., has returned, but her eight pups are gone.

Mrs. Isabel Howell of Price St., seeking to give away the eight puppies because the mother disappeared Saturday, said she was able to dispose of the 3-week-old dogs to people who came to her house in response to a Review story Thursday.

One Grimms Bridge woman telephoned The Review earlier today thinking she had found "Susie."

But "Susie," well-fed and sleek showed up about 8:30 this morning at the Howell home, looking for her pups with a mother's longing in her eyes.

Mrs. Howell said she was sorry "Susie" had to be disappointed, but she had feared for the welfare of the pups when the mother disappeared.

Seeks Airport Aid

Man Bound Over To Grand Jury

LISBON — A Massillon man, charged with assault to commit robbery, was bound over to the Columbiana County grand jury Thursday afternoon.

The defendant, Robert Payne, 37, appeared at a preliminary hearing in Southwest Area County Court before Judge J. L. MacDonald. He is accused as being one of two men who bound and gagged Mrs. Stella Frantum July 18 at her home in East Rochester.

At yesterday's hearing, Mrs. Frantum identified Payne as one of the two men who was at her home between 9 and 9:30 the night of the alleged offense. She said they told her "to keep my mouth shut" and then took her into the basement of her home and bound and gagged her.

Payne was arrested July 22 by the Columbiana County sheriff's office. He pleaded not guilty at the time and asked the preliminary hearing. The defendant declined to testify yesterday.

Payne is free on $3000 bond.

Will Go In Mail Over Weekend

Tax Statements Set For Hancock

A total of 32,500 real estate statements for Hancock County, totaling $4,172,817, will be put in the mails over the weekend by the Tax Department staff of the Hancock County sheriff's office.

Property assessments rose this year from 40 per cent to 45 per cent of the appriasal figures set by a professional appraisal company and will level off in 1966 at 50 per cent of the appraisal.

ANTHONY Pirraglia of Weirton, county assessor, explained that the new state law which went into effect in 1963 requires that all real estate and personal property be assessed at a minimum of 50 per cent of "true and actual value."

The West Virginia Tax Department had authorized the Hancock assessor to put the program into effect over a three-year period. It started with 40 per cent of the appraisal figure in 1964, advanced to 45 per cent this year and will reach 50 per cent next year.

Real estate and personal property was assessed for 1965 at $163,414,455, compared with $151,439,260 last year, a rise of $11,975,190.

Real estate assessments went from $89,923,885 to $96,306,770 and personal property from $61,515,375 to $67,107,685.

—:—

TAXES ON real estate will produce $2,302,594 and on personal property $1,870,123, a total of $4,172,817. Last year the taxes yielded $3,927,188.

This means the Tax Department of the sheriff's office will be charged with collecting $245,619 more than last year.

The biggest taxpayer in the county is the Weirton Steel Co. at Weirton, whose properties are assessed at $85,165,050, or 52 per cent of the entire assessment of the county. The company will pay $2,606,220 in taxes, 62.4 percent of the county's total.

—:—

HERE ARE the 1964 and 1965 tax rates per $1,000 assessment on houses occupied by the owners (Class 2):

The second half installment discount rate of 2½ per cent will apply through next February. The net rate will be in effect during March and interest will be charged after May 1.

Ohioville Group Will Hold Outing

Plans for a family outing were discussed during a meeting of the Auxiliary of the Ohioville volunteer fire department Wednesday night in the fire hall at Ohioville.

Auxiliary members and their families have been invited to the home of Paul Rice Jr. for a picnic, with an invitation also extended to non-members who donated time at the snack bar during the firemen's carnival in June.

Mrs. Robert Porter, president, presided for business and assigned members to work nights at the Auxiliary booth at the Fairview Grange Fair in August. The ways and means chairmen, Mrs. Thomas Gimbus and Mrs. Howard Benson, will be in charge. Donations may be sent to the booth or to the home of Mrs. Benson or Mrs. Porter.

Mrs. Rocco Uccellini reported that 16 members and guests attended the food demonstration at the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. offices in East Liverpool.

A program of games was under the direction of Mrs. Michael Haydin and Mrs. Carl Popp. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Uccellini, Mrs. Martin Richards and Mrs. Popp.

Communists Plan Sunken Wall Around West Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — Refugee soldiers say East Germany's Communist regime is planning a sunken wall around West Berlin that will be less noticeable and more effective.

Such a barrier is already taking shape along one section.

"We have no official confirmation of the plan," said Capt. Heinz Hackbarth of the West Berlin police during a tour of the border Wednesday.

"But according to information we have received from refugee East German soldiers, the Communist regime plans to encircle West Berlin completely with its 'modern border' by 1970. The idea is to remove all barbed wire and the present wall from around West Berlin."

Pointing to a section of the "modern border" already built along the Zehlendorf frontier, Hackbarth said:

"They will put up an ordinary wire fence where the barbed wire —and perhaps the wall — now stand. In the middle of a cleared stip 500 yards wide, they will dig a broad trench, and inside it on the side toward West Berlin will be a cement wall nine feet high and almost vertical.

"No vehicle, including a tank, will be able to get up that wall and no one will be able to climb it without help.

"On the eastern side of the trench and its sunken wall will be a road for their motorized patrols. Foot patrols and dogs will patrol in the trench.

"Beyond the road will be a second wire fence. The whole strip will have a normal appearance, camouflaged through design and landscaping.

"We have seen with the motorcycle patrol that just passed, even without landscaping when one stands directly across from the sunken wall and its trench, one cannot see it."

Tax Statements Set For Hancock

A total of 32,500 real estate statements for Hancock County, totaling $4,172,817, will be put in the mails over the weekend by the Tax Department staff of the Hancock County sheriff's office.

Property assessments rose this year from 40 per cent to 45 per cent of the appriasal figures set by a professional appraisal company and will level off in 1966 at 50 per cent of the appraisal.

ANTHONY Pirraglia of Weirton, county assessor, explained that the new state law which went into effect in 1963 requires that all real estate and personal property be assessed at a minimum of 50 per cent of "true and actual value."

The West Virginia Tax Department had authorized the Hancock assessor to put the program into effect over a three-year period. It started with 40 per cent of the appraisal figure in 1964, advanced to 45 per cent this year and will reach 50 per cent next year.

Real estate and personal property was assessed for 1965 at $163,414,455, compared with $151,439,260 last year, a rise of $11,975,190.

Real estate assessments went from $89,923,885 to $96,306,770 and personal property from $61,515,375 to $67,107,685.

—:—

TAXES ON real estate will produce $2,302,594 and on personal property $1,870,123, a total of $4,172,817. Last year the taxes yielded $3,927,188.

This means the Tax Department of the sheriff's office will be charged with collecting $245,619 more than last year.

The biggest taxpayer in the county is the Weirton Steel Co. at Weirton, whose properties are assessed at $85,165,050, or 52 per cent of the entire assessment of the county. The company will pay $2,606,220 in taxes, 62.4 percent of the county's total.

—:—

HERE ARE the 1964 and 1965 tax rates per $1,000 assessment on houses occupied by the owners (Class 2):

Some Republicans Attack Johnson Choice Of Fortas

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's nomination of Abe Fortas, his old friend and adviser, to the Supreme Court has come under fire from some Republican members of Congress.

There was some criticism on both sides of the Capitol Thursday, along with the announcement that the Senate Judiciary Committee's hearing on the nomination will be postponed a week, until Aug. 12.

However, it did not appear that the criticism posed any serious threat to the confirmation of Fortas, a Washington lawyer whose background includes service in President Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal. Acting Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said the resetting of the hearing was at Fortas' request.

Rep. Durward G. Hall, R-Mo., cited in the House Thursday an article in Esquire magazine which, he said, depicted Fortas as trying to suppress the story about the arrest last fall of Walter Jenkins, then a top White House aide, on morals charges.

Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, backed Hall, saying Fortas "did everything in his power to kill the story."

Hall told the House that "there is a serious question whether Mr. Fortas will be able to exercise independence because of his intimate ties with the President and because he has been a quiet participant in some of the more dubious transactions involving the Johnson administration."

He said Fortas had served as counsel for Bobby Baker, former Senate majority secretary whose business affairs came under congressional scrutiny. Hall also cited reports that Fortas had supervised establishment of a trust to administer the President's radio and television properties.

Gross called the naming of Fortas to the Supreme Court inconceivable.

The House does not vote on confirmation of presidential appointments.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., said, "It is with regret that I must announce that I am not able to support the President in this instance."

Williams said in a statement Johnson could have made a far wiser choice.

"Contrary to the President's claim that he had looked all over America to find the best qualified man for the job, it is quite obvious that he did not look far beyond his inner circle of friends," Williams said.

Fortas was defended in the House by Reps. George W. Grider, D-Tenn., and Ed Edmondson, D-Okla., who praised his talents and integrity and said magazine articles were not the best source of information for the House in such matters.

Moore Proposes Gov. Smith Call Special Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Arch Moore Jr., West Virginia's only Republican congressman, said Thursday Gov. Hulett Smith should call a special session of the West Virginia legislature to deal with constitutional revision.

He said such a session is necessary if there is to be speedy action on getting a convention formed to consider a new state constitution.

The State Supreme Court earlier this week invalidated a 1965 act authorizing a statewide vote next fall on a constitutional convention.

The high court said a provision of the act allowing every county at least one seat in the convention regardless of population violated state law requiring equal representation.

Gov. Smith, who returned late Thursday from attending the National Governors Conference in Minneapolis, has promised to consult with state leaders on the matter.

Porpoises Strive To Save Another Which Has Flu

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Four porpoises at an aquarium have been struggling since last weekend to save the life of another suffering with influenza.

Trainer Bud Krohn said Ginny, a 30-year-old star of the water show, became ill last week. She responded to antibiotics but suffered a relapse.

Krohn said Ginny apparently is too weak to surface for air. Ginny's friends have watched her constantly and when she fails to come up on schedule, they go down in a group and nudge her to the top, he said.

Ike As Member Of Indian Tribe Set For Warpath

LAC DU FLAMBEAU, Wis. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower as a member of the Chippewa Indian tribe is ready for the warpath.

"Now that I'm a full-fledged member of the Chippewa tribe and, I hope, one of its warriors, I think we ought to do something about the paleface," Eisenhower said at a Lake Superior band pow wow Thursday.

"The first thing I thought about was to drive them back to the Atlantic Ocean, but there are a lot of them. So why not adopt them all into the tribe, then the Chippewas can run the entire nation."

The Indians presented him with an assortment of gifts, including mink-lined golf tees.

Vote On Apportioning Plan Slated In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A constitutional amendment to allow states latitude in apportioning one house of their legislatures may come up for a vote next week in the Senate.

Backers and opponents have been seeking votes since Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois brought up the measure a week ago. Aimed at the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote decision that legislative apportionment must be based on population, the proposed amendment would allow consideration of other factors in apportioning one house.

Complaints Greet Order Of Price Tag On Articles

NEW YORK (AP) — How do you put a price tag on an alligator? That's a problem for Henry Trefflich, who runs one of the city's largest pet and animal stores.

He's angry, and he's not alone in facing the price tag problem.

His store is one of 100,000 retail stores covered by a new regulation issued by the Department of Markets Thursday.

The order, effective Aug. 15, requires all articles for retail to be clearly marked as to price.

Commissioner of Markets Albert C. Pacetta said his action was prompted by "hundreds of complaints from housewives and shoppers who felt they were being cheated when forced to buy goods from shelves without price markings."

The first complaints came from operators of antique shops, jewelry stores, pet shops and women's dress shops.

"Oh, God, how far can you go?" said a spokesman for Cartier, a Fifth Avenue jeweler. "What's the point? Price tags don't look well attached to fine jewelry."

He added that tags on items selling for several thousand dollars each would provide "a temptation, and we don't want our windows broken."

An antique dealer, who declined use of his name, said: "This means I'll have to mark my prices up so that I can bargain down again with the customer."

The commissioner's office said the order will in no way affect the joy of bargaining. "Once a merchant posts his price," said a spokesman, "we don't care what adjustments he and the consumer make in it."

All 16 demonstrators arrested Monday were granted jury trials at a Police Court hearing Thursday.

CONCEPTION AFTER ADOPTION

Q. Is it true that many previously barren women who adopt a child have children of their own.

A. The general impression that conception often follows adoption was recently confirmed by a study conducted in England. In 32 cases in which both the husband and wife were apparently normal but without children and in which adoption was advised, there were 18 pregnancies (56 per cent pregnancy rate). This rate of conception was much higher than would ordinarily be expected among childless couples. The English investigators concluded that adoption facilitates conception, probably by relieving emotional stress.

Moore Proposes Gov. Smith Call Special Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Arch Moore Jr., West Virginia's only Republican congressman, said Thursday Gov. Hulett Smith should call a special session of the West Virginia legislature to deal with constitutional revision.

He said such a session is necessary if there is to be speedy action on getting a convention formed to consider a new state constitution.

The State Supreme Court earlier this week invalidated a 1965 act authorizing a statewide vote next fall on a constitutional convention.

The high court said a provision of the act allowing every county at least one seat in the convention regardless of population violated state law requiring equal representation.

Gov. Smith, who returned late Thursday from attending the National Governors Conference in Minneapolis, has promised to consult with state leaders on the matter.

Porpoises Strive To Save Another Which Has Flu

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Four porpoises at an aquarium have been struggling since last weekend to save the life of another suffering with influenza.

Trainer Bud Krohn said Ginny, a 30-year-old star of the water show, became ill last week. She responded to antibiotics but suffered a relapse.

Krohn said Ginny apparently is too weak to surface for air. Ginny's friends have watched her constantly and when she fails to come up on schedule, they go down in a group and nudge her to the top, he said.

Porpoises are air-breathing mammals.

Ike As Member Of Indian Tribe Set For Warpath

LAC DU FLAMBEAU, Wis. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower as a member of the Chippewa Indian tribe is ready for the warpath.

"Now that I'm a full-fledged member of the Chippewa tribe and, I hope, one of its warriors, I think we ought to do something about the paleface," Eisenhower said at a Lake Superior band pow wow Thursday.

"The first thing I thought about was to drive them back to the Atlantic Ocean, but there are a lot of them. So why not adopt them all into the tribe, then the Chippewas can run the entire nation."

The Indians presented him with an assortment of gifts, including mink-lined golf tees.

Complaints Greet Order Of Price Tag On Articles

NEW YORK (AP) — How do you put a price tag on an alligator? That's a problem for Henry Trefflich, who runs one of the city's largest pet and animal stores.

He's angry, and he's not alone in facing the price tag problem.

His store is one of 100,000 retail stores covered by a new regulation issued by the Department of Markets Thursday.

The order, effective Aug. 15, requires all articles for retail to be clearly marked as to price.

Commissioner of Markets Albert C. Pacetta said his action was prompted by "hundreds of complaints from housewives and shoppers who felt they were being cheated when forced to buy goods from shelves without price markings."

The first complaints came from operators of antique shops, jewelry stores, pet shops and women's dress shops.

"Oh, God, how far can you go?" said a spokesman for Cartier, a Fifth Avenue jeweler. "What's the point? Price tags don't look well attached to fine jewelry."

He added that tags on items selling for several thousand dollars each would provide "a temptation, and we don't want our windows broken."

An antique dealer, who declined use of his name, said: "This means I'll have to mark my prices up so that I can bargain down again with the customer."

The commissioner's office said the order will in no way affect the joy of bargaining. "Once a merchant posts his price," said a spokesman, "we don't care what adjustments he and the consumer make in it."

Cincinnati Will Ban Rights Demonstration

CINCINNATI (AP) — Civil rights demonstrations would be prohibited at all building sites in Cincinnati under a court order sought by City Manager William C. Wichman.

All 16 demonstrators arrested Monday were granted jury trials at a Police Court hearing Thursday.

Vote On Apportioning Plan Slated In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A constitutional amendment to allow states latitude in apportioning one house of their legislatures may come up for a vote next week in the Senate.

Backers and opponents have been seeking votes since Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois brought up the measure a week ago. Aimed at the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote decision that legislative apportionment must be based on population, the proposed amendment would allow consideration of other factors in apportioning one house.

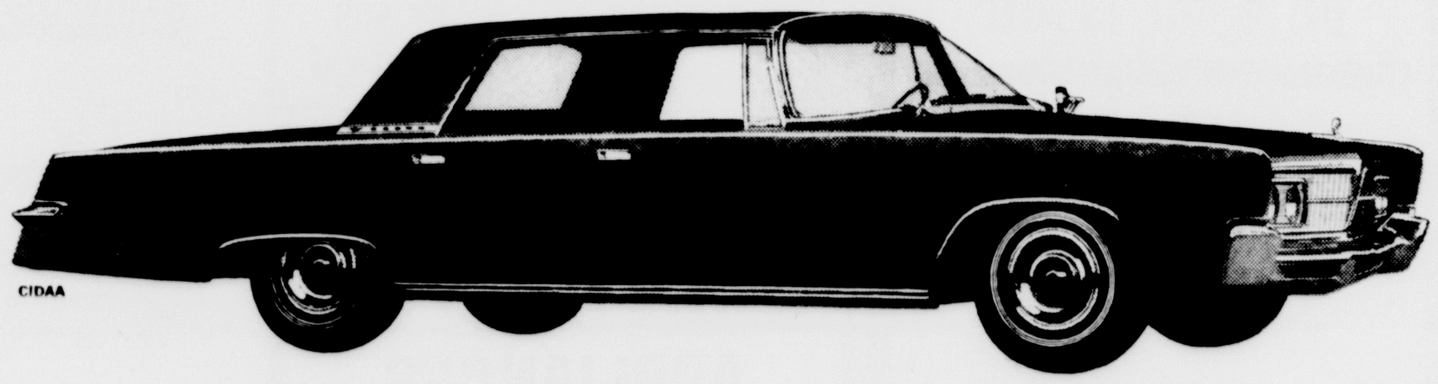
Half the people driving medium-price cars would rather own a luxury automobile. Right now, Imperial dealers are not only making it possible, but highly practical.



Usually, financial considerations prevent the medium-priced car owner from moving up to the luxury car he might rather own.

But that is no longer the case.

Today, final shipments of 1965 Imperials are in from Detroit. Your dealer's end-of-year price reductions are officially in effect. Which means a new Imperial is definitely within your reach. It also means the best choice of models and colors for some time to come.

By any standard, it means the best investment opportunity of the year.

CONCEPTION AFTER ADOPTION

Q. Is it true that many previously barren women who adopt a child have children of their own.

A. The general impression that conception often follows adoption was recently confirmed by a study conducted in England. In 32 cases in which both the husband and wife were apparently normal but without children and in which adoption was advised, there were 18 pregnancies (56 per cent pregnancy rate). This rate of conception was much higher than would ordinarily be expected among childless couples. The English investigators concluded that adoption facilitates conception, probably by relieving emotional stress.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Recently I read a letter in your column from a reader who asked why people go to funeral chapels when they don't know the family or the person who died. She wondered if there are nuts like that in every town.

I'd like to report something that happened at my father-in-law's funeral which may settle the question once and for all.

My husband's family and close friends were seated around the closed casket in a private room of the chapel. Suddenly a woman none of us had seen before entered, ignored us all, threw herself over the casket and began to sob and tear her hair. She obviously was suffering the pain of a woman who had lost a man who was very dear to her.

My mother - in - law turned ashen. My husband was unable to move. Could it be that this man whom all of us had loved and believed in had been leading a double life? It was too fantastic!

As my husband struggled to his feet a strange man entered the room. He took the sobbing woman by the arm and said, "For heaven's sake, Sarah, cut it out. We're in the wrong chapel."

What do you think of this, Ann Landers? — FROM CHICAGO.

-:-

Dear Chicago: I think this proves the wisdom of the adage, "Believe nothing you hear and only half of what you see."

Slave Wages

Dear Ann: I'm 14 and my kid brother is 12. Dad made it clear that we are to earn our own money this summer, which is all right with us. We need someone to settle a problem.

I agreed to cut a neighbor's lawn once a week for $2. It's a very big lawn and even with a power mower (my dad's) it's a lot of work. I went ahead and got myself another job running errands for a drug store and subcontracted this lawn job to my kid brother. I pay him 75 cents.

My Dad says I'm cheap. I say my brother is working for me and I should be able to name the price I pay him because I'm his boss.

We all want your opinion. Thanks. — RUSTY.

-:-

Dear Rusty: Sorry, Bub, but Lincoln freed the slaves. Being a boss does not mean that you have the right to exploit others. In my opinion your brother is entitled to $1.75.

Monkeyshines

Dear Ann — I'm 28 years old, no beauty and have been fighting (and losing) the "Battle of the Bulge" for the last few years.

Six months ago I was flattered and thrilled when a fellow who works in the credit union asked me for a date. He is two years my junior, very handsome, but seems to need three martinis to "relax." Frequently he gets so "relaxed" I have to drive him to his apartment.

On our fourth date he asked me to lend him $300 because his sister had to have an operation. Two months later he needed $150 or he'd lose his car. Last month he asked me to marry him but said I'd have to give him $1,500 to clear up bills and start life as a married man "with a clear conscience."

My mother is driving me crazy. She says a girl almost 30 has to put up with some monkeyshines or be an old maid. I'm not so dumb that I need Ann Landers to tell me whether or not to marry a man, but I'd like your opinion. — DONNA.

-:-

Dear Donna: I'd say this monkey has outshone himself. Write off the $450 and call it "entertainment" or "education." And don't marry this man unless you are prepared to continue to work and fork over money for the rest of your life.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Best In District . . .

Hats off to the local Little League All-Stars who proved they were the best in the district Wednesday by defeating Massillon to capture the championship.

The American League stars came within one step last season of gaining the state semi-finals, but were eliminated by Cuyahoga Falls. Maybe this is the year for the local youngsters, who will go back into action again tonight against Mingo Junction.

Wednesday's game drew a large throng at the Thompson Park field.

The Pony Leaguers also have two victories under their belts and will be shooting for an area championship over the weekend.

The Colt League team, which won the Regional crown a year ago, will open defense of its title tonight in Pittsburgh.

The boys' baseball program in East Liverpool has blossomed the last few years, marked with the success of the Pony League two years ago and last year's achievement of the Colt League which carried the name of East Liverpool into the South before being eliminated at Charlotte, N. C.

Toncic's Injury Serious . . .

IVAN TONCIC, the former Midland and Pitt great, may not have many days of football remaining. He reinjured his knee in an intersquad game with the Wheeling Ironmen Tuesday and doctors say the outlook for the quarterback is not too good.

Toncic has been a mainstay with the Ironmen since the franchise was formed in Wheeling and led them to two championships with his dazzling passing and defensive manuvers. He is expected to be out for the season.

The two other local gridders are expected to play key roles for the Ironmen this year—John Martin of Wellsville who is the starting halfback at present, and George Hale, the ex-All-Ohio star from East Liverpool, who is one of the top defensive backs.

Vanlier To St. Francis . . .

IT'S GETTING to be difficult keeping up with Norm Vanlier and where he will go to college.

Vanlier announced Thursday he has changed his mind about attending Wichita and will enroll at St. Francis College at Loretto, Pa.

Skip Hughes, head cage coach at St Francis, made the announcement.

Hughes said: "Vanlier is the best backcourt man to enter St. Francis since I have been coach. We do not know if he will become as great as Sandy Williams or Cal Fowler, but he comes to St. Francis with the best reputation at this stage."

Hughes said Vanlier is the first all-state guard to enter St. Francis. The Midland star will be eligible for varsity competition his freshman year.

Vanlier has been convalescing at Rochester General Hospital following an appendectomy.

Ex-Indian Romano Wrecks Tribe In 9-4 Chicago Win

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's taken John Romano 3½ months to get back into the swing of things which keeps his timetable considerably ahead of the one maintained by the Chicago White Sox' front office.

Romano walloped two home runs and drove in five runs Thursday night as the White Sox whacked Cleveland 9-4.

That was the kind of hitting the White Sox expected when they reclaimed the hefty catcher from Cleveland in a three-way trade last winter. John had grown up in the Chicago system but was traded to the Indians in 1960 after only one full season with the White Sox.

Romano developed into one of the league's top catchers playing for the Indians while Chicago struggled along with a pronounced weakness behind the plate.

The White Sox front office got around to rectifying the 1960 swap last winter when they sent outfielders Jim Landis and Mike Hershberger to Kansas City and catcher Camilo Carreon to Cleveland for Romano, left-hander Tommy John and outfielder Tommy Agee. In addition to Carreon, the Indians received outfielder Rocky Colavito from Kansas City. Chicago sweetened the Athletics' pot by adding pitcher Fred Talbot later.

Romano started slowly with the White Sox, his average dipping below .200. But Manager Al Lopez stuck with the big guy and last Sunday John exploded a grand slam home run — his first of the season. Then Thursday Lopez started him in left field — his first appearance in the outfield this season — and Romano responded with two homers.

In the only other American League games Thursday, Boston downed Kansas City 6-4 and New York tamed Detroit 7-3. In the National League, the New York Mets split a doubleheader with Chicago, winning 14-0 and then losing 2-1 in 12 innings, and Philadelphia blanked Pittsburgh 5-0.

Frank Malzone's pinch double delivered two runs in a five-run Red Sox seventh inning rally that got Boston past the Athletics. Jim Gosger's single and two sacrifice flies produced the other runs as Boston broke loose against Diego Segui and Don Mossi.

Bob Duliba, 2-2, who pitched five innings of three-hit relief, was the winner. Mossi, 5-4, took the loss.

Joe Pepitone slammed a pair of two-run homers and Mel Stottlemyre scattered 11 hits for his 12th victory of the year as the Yankees whipped the Tigers.

Stottlemyre and teammate Whitey Ford are the only American League pitchers with 12 victories.

Bucs Blanked 5-0 In Strikeout Or No Count Battle

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ted Abernathy doesn't know how he got to the Chicago Cubs, but the Cubs will be happy to take a few more of him the same way.

The veteran relief pitcher made his 55th appearance, most in the majors, Thursday and picked up the victory as the Cubs edged New York 2-1 in 12 innings and gained a split of their doubleheader. The Mets romped in the opener 14-0.

Abernathy became a Cub on the day before this season started. He came from the Cleveland Indians, but that's all he knows.

"I still don't know if I was sold or traded," the 32-year-old hurler says.

And he probably won't know until the end of the season. The deal worked this way:

When the Cubs acquired the submarine-ball pitcher on April 11, they promised the Indians either a player or an undisclosed amount of cash.

The Cubs can turn over the player at any time, but the deal most likely won't be completed until after the season is over. If the teams can't agree on a player, cash will be substituted.

In the only other National League game Thursday, Philadelphia whipped Pittsburgh 5-0.

Abernathy relieved starter Bill Faul in the ninth inning of the second game after Johnny Lewis and Charley Smith singled. Gary Kolb's sacrifice fly tied the game 1-1, but Abernathy held the Mets to two hits the rest of the way and earned the victory when Ron Santo hit his 22nd homer off Larry Bearnarth in the 12th.

The Mets romped in the first game behind the four-hit pitching of Galen Cisco. Johnny Lewis rapped two homers, a single and a double while the Mets also received help from six Chicago errors.

Ray Culp blanked the Pirates on two hits as the Phillies extended their scoreless inning string over the Pirates to 23. Wes Covington doubled home two runs in the eighth inning while Pat Corrales singled and scored on Cookie Rojas' fifth-inning single and doubled in a run in the eighth.

Culp's 10 strikeouts plus 16 by three Pirate pitchers set a major league mark for total strikeouts by two teams in a nine-inning game. Pittsburgh's Bob Veale fanned 14 in seven innings but was removed in the eighth.

Dalmahoy Event Reduced From 72 To Only 54 Holes

DALMAHOY, Scotland (AP) — Players moved to higher ground for today's rain-delayed opening of the $28,000 Dalmahoy Festival of Golf.

Officials of the tourney decided to reduce it from a 72-hole test to 54 holes and switched to the Dalmahoy West Course after 50 hours of rain had left the 6,370-yard Dalmahoy course flooded.

The shorter West course with its par 34-33—67 covering 5,227 yards, will be the scene for the first 18 holes scheduled for today. Tournament officials hope to return to the regular 36-36—72 tournament course Saturday for the final 36 holes.

Ray Floyd of St. Andrews, Ill. remained the favorite in the field of 200 players which will be cut to the 40 leaders after today's round.

Doctors Spot 'Flareup' In Koufax's Arm

By The Associated Press

Baseball's most famous left elbow not only is part of baseball's winningest arm; it also is the center of apparently differing diagnoses.

The elbow belongs to Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers' 17-game winner. It started on the way to fame when it was discovered to have arthritis in the spring.

It's now the subject of rumors following Koufax' latest performance.

The rumors over Sandy's pitching arm began circulating after the southpaw lost to Cincinnati 4-1 Wednesday night.

The Dodger team physician, Dr. Robert Kerlan, examined the slightly swollen elbow as he does after every game.

"He had a flareup in his elbow," Kerlan said Thursday. "I would say the arthritic condition in his elbow, which is chronic, was perhaps a bit worse last night."

"What happened was that I had trouble getting loose and my control was bad — but that's nothing new," Koufax told reporters in Albuquerque, N.M., slightly irked at the fuss over the flaring joint.

Best In District . . .

Hats off to the local Little League All-Stars who proved they were the best in the district Wednesday by defeating Massillon to capture the championship.

The American League stars came within one step last season of gaining the state semi-finals, but were eliminated by Cuyahoga Falls. Maybe this is the year for the local youngsters, who will go back into action again tonight against Mingo Junction.

Wednesday's game drew a large throng at the Thompson Park field.

The Pony Leaguers also have two victories under their belts and will be shooting for an area championship over the weekend.

The Colt League team, which won the Regional crown a year ago, will open defense of its title tonight in Pittsburgh.

The boys' baseball program in East Liverpool has blossomed the last few years, marked with the success of the Pony League two years ago and last year's achievement of the Colt League which carried the name of East Liverpool into the South before being eliminated at Charlotte, N. C.

Toncic's Injury Serious . . .

IVAN TONCIC, the former Midland and Pitt great, may not have many days of football remaining. He reinjured his knee in an intersquad game with the Wheeling Ironmen Tuesday and doctors say the outlook for the quarterback is not too good.

Toncic has been a mainstay with the Ironmen since the franchise was formed in Wheeling and led them to two championships with his dazzling passing and defensive manuvers. He is expected to be out for the season.

The two other local gridders are expected to play key roles for the Ironmen this year—John Martin of Wellsville who is the starting halfback at present, and George Hale, the ex-All-Ohio star from East Liverpool, who is one of the top defensive backs.

Vanlier To St. Francis . . .

IT'S GETTING to be difficult keeping up with Norm Vanlier and where he will go to college.

Vanlier announced Thursday he has changed his mind about attending Wichita and will enroll at St. Francis College at Loretto, Pa.

Skip Hughes, head cage coach at St Francis, made the announcement.

Hughes said: "Vanlier is the best backcourt man to enter St. Francis since I have been coach. We do not know if he will become as great as Sandy Williams or Cal Fowler, but he comes to St. Francis with the best reputation at this stage."

Hughes said Vanlier is the first all-state guard to enter St. Francis. The Midland star will be eligible for varsity competition his freshman year.

Vanlier has been convalescing at Rochester General Hospital following an appendectomy.

Ex-Indian Romano Wrecks Tribe In 9-4 Chicago Win

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's taken John Romano 3½ months to get back into the swing of things which keeps his timetable considerably ahead of the one maintained by the Chicago White Sox' front office.

Romano walloped two home runs and drove in five runs Thursday night as the White Sox whacked Cleveland 9-4.

That was the kind of hitting the White Sox expected when they reclaimed the hefty catcher from Cleveland in a three-way trade last winter. John had grown up in the Chicago system but was traded to the Indians in 1960 after only one full season with the White Sox

Romano developed into one of the league's top catchers playing for the Indians while Chicago struggled along with a pronounced weakness behind the plate.

The White Sox front office got around to rectifying the 1960 swap last winter when they sent outfielders Jim Landis and Mike Hershberger to Kansas City and catcher Camilo Carreon to Cleveland for Romano, left-hander Tommy John and outfielder Tommy Agee. In addition to Carreon, the Indians received outfielder Rocky Colavito from Kansas City. Chicago sweetened the Athletics' pot by adding pitcher Fred Talbot later.

Romano started slowly with the White Sox, his average dipping below .200. But Manager Al Lopez stuck with the big guy and last Sunday John exploded a grand slam home run — his first of the season. Then Thursday Lopez started him in left field — his first appearance in the outfield this season — and Romano responded with two homers.

In the only other American League games Thursday, Boston downed Kansas City 6-4 and New York tamed Detroit 7-3. In the National League, the New York Mets split a doubleheader with Chicago, winning 14-0 and then losing 2-1 in 12 innings, and Philadelphia blanked Pittsburgh 5-0.

Frank Malzone's pinch double delivered two runs in a five-run Red Sox seventh inning rally that got Boston past the Athletics. Jim Gosger's single and two sacrifice flies produced the other runs as Boston broke loose against Diego Segui and Don Mossi.

Bob Duliba, 2-2, who pitched five innings of three-hit relief, was the winner. Mossi, 5-4, took the loss.

Joe Pepitone slammed a pair of two-run homers and Mel Stottlemyre scattered 11 hits for his 12th victory of the year as the Yankees whipped the Tigers.

Stottlemyre and teammate Whitey Ford are the only American League pitchers with 12 victories.

Golf Stars Trail Schwab In Thunderbird Classic

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — If you're looking for an unlikely candidate to lead today's charge into the second round of the Thunderbird Golf Classic, try Pat Schwab.

The 32-year old club pro from West Orange, N. J., is a pudgy, unathletic looking 250 - pounder. He was forced off the tour seven years ago when he developed tendonitis in his left shoulder, and still is hampered by the ailment. He had to qualify for this $100,000 event, and barely made it in a playoff.

But Schwab is the pacesetter after a consistently sparkling six-under-par 66 Thursday that put him in front of such star performers as Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, and Tony Lema.

Par over the Westchester Country Club's lush, 6,573 yards proved an easy mark — 47 in the field of 147 broke 72 and 15 more matched it.

Nicklaus is one stroke back of Schwab, along with five others — Billy Casper, 1962 Thunderbird winner Gene Littler, Harold Kneece, Pete Brown, and Rocky Thompson, one of several University of Houston products making a living at golf.

Palmer finished dramatically after starting with two bogeys, closing with a birdie-birdie-par-eagle. The slumping strongboy from Pennsylvania fired his final-hole eagle by ramming in a 40-footer and tied at 68 with Bobby Nichols, James Walker Jr. and another ex-Houston star, Dick Crawford.

Player posted 69, along with Bruce Devlin, Doug Sanders, Bob Charles and six others. Defending Thunderbird champion Lema was one of 16 bunched at 70 and 10 more had 71s.

Ladies Take Spotlight In Saturday's Racing

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It'll be Ladies Day on the American turf Saturday with stars of the distaff divisions racing for the richest purses.

Two-year-old fillies go in the $100,000-added Sorority at Monmouth Park and older fillies and mares clash in the Delaware Handicap, also a $100,000 plus event, at Delaware Park.

A. I. Savin's Native Street, winner of the Astoria Stakes at Aqueduct and unbeaten in her two starts, appears likely to be the short priced favorite while facing a dozen rivals in the six furlongs of the Sorority.

Four supplementary nominations have swelled the pot with the result the 10th edition of the race will be worth $122,030 if 13 start with the winner receiving $73,218.

Native Street, taking out of the Hialeah sales last January for $40,000 will be riden by Manuel Ycaza. She is trained by Les Lear, former pro football star who handled the ill-fated Sadair last year as the colt became the all-time top money winning 2-year-old.

The four supplementaries at $5,000 each are Lady Diplomat and Lovely Gypsy, owned by Leonard P. Sasso; Golden Triangle stable's Lady Pitt and Origema from the Hickory Tree Stable.

Other probable starters include Lyvette, Inyala, Nancy's Pride, Char Song, Reason to Earn, Hurry Star and Storm Brewing.

Harry S. Nichols' Miss Cavandish, beaten odds-on-favorite in the recent New Castle Stakes, and George D. Widener's Steeple Jill, a pair of 4-year-olds, are the topweights in the Delaware Handicap's probable field of 12. Each will pick up 123 pounds.

With 12 starters, Delaware Park's final day headliner will be worth $124,515 with $80,934 going to the winner.

Other probable starters include Beautiful Day, winner of the New Castle, under 113 pounds; well regarded Treachery with 119 up and Sceree, who gets in with 114.

Big 10 Champ Holds Lead In Western

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A rivalry between Big Ten champion Bill Newton of Michigan and NCAA king Marty Fleckman of Houston blazes today in the chase for medalist honors of the 63rd Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

The bespectacled Newton, who finished far behind in the NCAA meet this spring at Knoxville, Tenn., while Fleckman was en route to the crown, enters the 36-hole qualifying windup with a one-stroke lead.

Both 21-year-old business administration seniors fired 76 over the 7,000-yard Point O'Wood's course Thursday. Newton maintained his lead over the field with 146, shadowed by Fleckman with 147. Par for the distance is 142.

After today's double round, the 16 low scorers will start two days of match play to decide the champion.

Collier Sees 'Worst Drill'

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — "The worst practice of the year." Coach Blanton Collier complained after the Cleveland Browns finished football practice Thursday.

"I don't know what happened," he said. "Perhaps we can blame it on the relief of the boys at getting the two practices a day out of the way."

The Browns had been practicing twice a day—morning and afternoon—until Thursday, when Collier started having the specialists practice in the morning and the full team practicing in the afternoon. The National Football League champions have just one week before they meet the College All-Stars in Chicago.

"They simply may have relaxed," Collier said. "Some of the players told me they went blank on a couple of plays and the veterans were making many mistakes," he added.

On the sidelines during the scrimmage session were defensive back Bernie Parrish with a pulled leg muscle, end Tom Hutchinson with a sprained ankle and Corwyn Aldredge, still weak from a preseason knee operation.

Globe Brick Nips Foe, 2-1

Frank Kenney's two-run homer supplied all the runs for Globe Brick in a 2-1 victory over Hancock Savings Thursday in the Chester Softball League.

Bill Talbot bested Sonny Thompson on the mound as both pitchers gave up four hits.

The league championship will be determined tonight at 6:45 when Scafide's will meet the Chester Merchants. Both teams are tied for first place.

Viking Star Swears Off Sky Diving Until Later

BEMIDJI, Minn. (AP) — Jim Marshall, Minnesota's version of Wrong Way Corrigan, has sworn off sky diving — until after the football season.

"Norm doesn't like for me to jump during the season," said the Vikings' 247-pound defensive end who may be the best pass rusher in the National Football League. "There always is a chance I might twist an ankle."

The Norm that Marshall mentioned is Norm Van Brocklin, head coach of the Vikings. The Dutchman takes a dim view of football players jumping out of airplanes, even with two parachutes. Marshall, a blithe spirit, claims he has made 56 jumps at heights ranking from 2,800 feet to 13,900 and plans to go higher. As a member of the Twin Eagles exhibition team he has been available for exhibitions at conventions and carnivals.

"My wife doesn't exactly encourage it," said the big fellow with the brush mustache. "But she has learned to accept it as part of me. I am an active fellow. I just entered a school for judo and karate. I think it might help me in football."

And that's not all. Marshall is a scuba diver, a weight lifter, a retired wig merchant and a salesman for a brokerage house. He also is quite some football player.

Jim made headlines last year in San Francisco when he grabbed a bouncing football and ran 67 yards the wrong way for a touchdown. Fortunately, the Vikings won anyway, 27-22.

Cookie Gilchrist Gets To Camp 9 Days Late

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP) — Nine days late, fullback Cookie Gilchrist was in the Denver Broncos' training camp today anxious to start practice and to forget a bitter dispute with management.

"I'm very happy that everything's settled," Gilchrist said. "It was unfortunate... just a lack of communication."

The dispute erupted when Gilchrist, the American Football League's highest salaried fullback at $37,500 plus, didn't arrive in nearby Denver until last Sunday.

The rest of the Bronco veterans hit camp July 20.

He had to qualify for this $100,000 event, and barely made it in a playoff.

But Schwab is the pacesetter after a consistently sparkling six-under-par 66 Thursday that put him in front of such star performers as Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, and Tony Lema.

Par over the Westchester Country Club's lush, 6,573 yards proved an easy mark — 47 in the field of 147 broke 72 and 15 more matched it.

Nicklaus is one stroke back of Schwab, along with five others — Billy Casper, 1962 Thunderbird winner Gene Littler, Harold Kneece, Pete Brown, and Rocky Thompson, one of several University of Houston products making a living at golf.

Palmer finished dramatically after starting with two bogeys, closing with a birdie-birdie-par-eagle. The slumping strongboy from Pennsylvania fired his final-hole eagle by ramming in a 40-footer and tied at 68 with Bobby Nichols, James Walker Jr. and another ex-Houston star, Dick Crawford.

Player posted 69, along with Bruce Devlin, Doug Sanders, Bob Charles and six others. Defending Thunderbird champion Lema was one of 16 bunched at 70 and 10 more had 71s.

Ladies Take Spotlight In Saturday's Racing

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It'll be Ladies Day on the American turf Saturday with stars of the distaff divisions racing for the richest purses.

Two-year-old fillies go in the $100,000-added Sorority at Monmouth Park and older fillies and mares clash in the Delaware Handicap, also a $100,000 plus event, at Delaware Park.

A. I. Savin's Native Street, winner of the Astoria Stakes at Aqueduct and unbeaten in her two starts, appears likely to be the short priced favorite while facing a dozen rivals in the six furlongs of the Sorority.

Four supplementary nominations have swelled the pot with the result the 10th edition of the race will be worth $122,030 if 13 start with the winner receiving $73,218.

Native Street, taking out of the Hialeah sales last January for $40,000 will be riden by Manuel Ycaza. She is trained by Les Lear, former pro football star who handled the ill-fated Sadair last year as the colt became the all-time top money winning 2-year-old.

The four supplementaries at $5,000 each are Lady Diplomat and Lovely Gypsy, owned by Leonard P. Sasso; Golden Triangle stable's Lady Pitt and Origema from the Hickory Tree Stable.

Other probable starters include Lyvette, Inyala, Nancy's Pride, Char Song, Reason to Earn, Hurry Star and Storm Brewing.

Harry S. Nichols' Miss Cavandish, beaten odds-on-favorite in the recent New Castle Stakes, and George D. Widener's Steeple Jill, a pair of 4-year-olds, are the topweights in the Delaware Handicap's probable field of 12. Each will pick up 123 pounds.

With 12 starters, Delaware Park's final day headliner will be worth $124,515 with $80,934 going to the winner.

Other probable starters include Beautiful Day, winner of the New Castle, under 113 pounds; well regarded Treachery with 119 up and Sceree, who gets in with 114.

Big 10 Champ Holds Lead In Western

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A rivalry between Big Ten champion Bill Newton of Michigan and NCAA king Marty Fleckman of Houston blazes today in the chase for medalist honors of the 63rd Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

The bespectacled Newton, who finished far behind in the NCAA meet this spring at Knoxville, Tenn., while Fleckman was en route to the crown, enters the 36-hole qualifying windup with a one-stroke lead.

Both 21-year-old business administration seniors fired 76 over the 7,000-yard Point O'Wood's course Thursday. Newton maintained his lead over the field with 146, shadowed by Fleckman with 147. Par for the distance is 142.

After today's double round, the 16 low scorers will start two days of match play to decide the champion.

Collier Sees 'Worst Drill'

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — "The worst practice of the year." Coach Blanton Collier complained after the Cleveland Browns finished football practice Thursday.

"I don't know what happened," he said. "Perhaps we can blame it on the relief of the boys at getting the two practices a day out of the way."

The Browns had been practicing twice a day—morning and afternoon—until Thursday, when Collier started having the specialists practice in the morning and the full team practicing in the afternoon. The National Football League champions have just one week before they meet the College All-Stars in Chicago.

"They simply may have relaxed," Collier said. "Some of the players told me they went blank on a couple of plays and the veterans were making many mistakes," he added.

On the sidelines during the scrimmage session were defensive back Bernie Parrish with a pulled leg muscle, end Tom Hutchinson with a sprained ankle and Corwyn Aldredge, still weak from a preseason knee operation.

Globe Brick Nips Foe, 2-1

Frank Kenney's two-run homer supplied all the runs for Globe Brick in a 2-1 victory over Hancock Savings Thursday in the Chester Softball League.

Bill Talbot bested Sonny Thompson on the mound as both pitchers gave up four hits.

The league championship will be determined tonight at 6:45 when Scafide's will meet the Chester Merchants. Both teams are tied for first place.

Viking Star Swears Off Sky Diving Until Later

BEMIDJI, Minn. (AP) — Jim Marshall, Minnesota's version of Wrong Way Corrigan, has sworn off sky diving — until after the football season.

"Norm doesn't like for me to jump during the season," said the Vikings' 247-pound defensive end who may be the best pass rusher in the National Football League. "There always is a chance I might twist an ankle."

The Norm that Marshall mentioned is Norm Van Brocklin, head coach of the Vikings. The Dutchman takes a dim view of football players jumping out of airplanes, even with two parachutes. Marshall, a blithe spirit, claims he has made 56 jumps at heights ranking from 2,800 feet to 13,900 and plans to go higher. As a member of the Twin Eagles exhibition team he has been available for exhibitions at conventions and carnivals.

"My wife doesn't exactly encourage it," said the big fellow with the brush mustache. "But she has learned to accept it as part of me. I am an active fellow. I just entered a school for judo and karate. I think it might help me in football."

And that's not all. Marshall is a scuba diver, a weight lifter, a retired wig merchant and a salesman for a brokerage house. He also is quite some football player.

Jim made headlines last year in San Francisco when he grabbed a bouncing football and ran 67 yards the wrong way for a touchdown. Fortunately, the Vikings won anyway, 27-22.

Cookie Gilchrist Gets To Camp 9 Days Late

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP) — Nine days late, fullback Cookie Gilchrist was in the Denver Broncos' training camp today anxious to start practice and to forget a bitter dispute with management.

"I'm very happy that everything's settled," Gilchrist said. "It was unfortunate... just a lack of communication."

The dispute erupted when Gilchrist, the American Football League's highest salaried fullback at $37,500 plus, didn't arrive in nearby Denver until last Sunday.

The rest of the Bronco veterans hit camp July 20.

Oak Glen To Begin Grid Drills Monday

Football practice for Oak Glen High candidates will begin Monday at 3 p.m. Buses will pick up players at the three junior high schools at 2 p.m. All candidates are requested to bring gym clothes.

Pennsylvania School Head Rumors Fly

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — One educator being mentioned frequently as a possible selection for Pennsylvania superintendent of public instruction is Edward Nyquist, deputy commissioner of education in the state of New York.

The education chief's post in Pennsylvania has been vacant since May 1964, when Dr. Charles H. Boehm resigned.

Since then, Gov. William W. Scranton has been conducting an intensive search for a man for "the vital and sensitive position."

The Republican governor has been criticized for not moving fast enough, but Scranton insists he wants the right man for the job.

Some other out-of-state educators being mentioned include Dr. Leon Minear, chief education official in Oregon; Dr. Byron Hansford, commissioner of education in Colorado, and Dr. Warren Hill, president of Trenton State College and former state superintendent in Maine.

Pennsylvanians being mentioned include Dr. Neal Musmanno, deputy state superintendent; Dr. George W. Hoffman, acting state superintendent, and George E. Raab, Bucks County superintendent.

Other Pennsylvania educators mentioned are Dr. William M. Potter, superintendent of Wilkinsburg schools, and Dr. Fred Bryan, president of Mansfield State College.

Pennsylvania School Head Rumors Fly

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — One educator being mentioned frequently as a possible selection for Pennsylvania superintendent of public instruction is Edward Nyquist, deputy commissioner of education in the state of New York.

The education chief's post in Pennsylvania has been vacant since May 1964, when Dr. Charles H. Boehm resigned.

Since then, Gov. William W. Scranton has been conducting an intensive search for a man for "the vital and sensitive position."

The Republican governor has been criticized for not moving fast enough, but Scranton insists he wants the right man for the job.

Some other out-of-state educators being mentioned include Dr. Leon Minear, chief education official in Oregon; Dr. Byron Hansford, commissioner of education in Colorado, and Dr. Warren Hill, president of Trenton State College and former state superintendent in Maine.

Pennsylvanians being mentioned include Dr. Neal Musmanno, deputy state superintendent; Dr. George W. Hoffman, acting state superintendent, and George E. Raab, Bucks County superintendent.

Other Pennsylvania educators mentioned are Dr. William M. Potter, superintendent of Wilkinsburg schools, and Dr. Fred Bryan, president of Mansfield State College.

75 AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE

A DEALER needs cars and pick-ups. Must be exceptionally sharp. Will pay cash or if payments too high will trade back to older model — finance balances paid off. "Say," why not trade back to one of the most economical cars in the world for approximately $1 a day. You can trade your big costly operating car for a like new Volkswagen with operating on 1c per mile, 5.3 pints of the best oil, get up to 43.2 miles on regular gas, up to 100,000 miles on your first set of tires, also in replacing a new rear fender costs only $18.95, insurance is much, much less on a Volkswagen. Make us prove it. You eliminate water pump, radiator, anti-freeze, hose, clamps, drive shaft assembly. It's a rear end air cooled engine. You can almost trade year for year for the price of power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seat, and automatic on your big costly operating car. Volkswagen has the lowest depreciation, providing you keep it sharp, highest trade in value, and it starts at $1,563 P.O.E. and up. You pay less and save 50c out of every $1 when you drive a Volkswagen versus a big costly operating car. Why not join the millions of people who are driving the Volkswagen. There must be a reason. Come in, write, or call and talk to our courteous salesmen. SEE your local representative Mr. CHUCK RINESTINE. See it — Drive it — Just try it. —There goes another Volkswagen. Why does he drive a Volkswagen? Ask the man who owns one. Beaver Valley Volkswagen, 294 State St., Vanport, Beaver, Pa. Your factory dealer, only 20 miles from East Liverpool, Ohio on Pa. Rt. 68. 775-4550.

P. S. PARTS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY or on tap within 24 hours. Service almost immediately. Call Mr. Charles Coen, your local man from Wellsville and our service manager or Mr. Earl King, parts manager for more information.

75 AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE

A DEALER needs cars and pickups. Must be exceptionally sharp. Will pay cash or if payments too high will trade back to older model — finance balances paid off. "Say," why not trade back to one of the most economical cars in the world for approximately $1 a day. You can trade your big costly operating car for a like new Volkswagen with operating on 1c per mile, 5.3 pints of the best oil, get up to 43.2 miles on regular gas, up to 100,000 miles on your first set of tires, also in replacing a new rear fender costs only $18.95, insurance is much, much less on a Volkswagen. Make us prove it. You eliminate water pump, radiator, anti-freeze, hose, clamps, drive shaft assembly. It's a rear end air cooled engine. You can almost trade year for year for the price of power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seat, and automatic on your big costly operating car. Volkswagen has the lowest depreciation, providing you keep it sharp, highest trade in value, and it starts at $1,563 P.O.E. and up. You pay less and save 50c out of every $1 when you drive a Volkswagen versus a big costly operating car. Why not join the millions of people who are driving the Volkswagen. There must be a reason. Come in, write, or call and talk to our courteous salesmen. SEE your local representative Mr. CHUCK RINESTINE. See it — Drive it — Just try it. —There goes another Volkswagen. Why does he drive a Volkswagen? Ask the man who owns one. Beaver Valley Volkswagen, 294 State St., Vanport, Beaver, Pa. Your factory dealer, only 20 miles from East Liverpool, Ohio on Pa. Rt. 68. 775-4550.

P. S. PARTS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY or on tap within 24 hours. Service almost immediately. Call Mr. Charles Coen, your local man from Wellsville and our service manager or Mr. Earl King, parts manager for more information.

"Auntie, aren't you going to tell Uncle Rollo about the F-E-N-D-E-R?"

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I clean unglazed ceramic tiles, such as used on bathroom floors?

A.—Always wipe up immediately any spilled medicines, paint, or other such substances — then scour the spot with an abrasive powder. Unglazed tiles are very absorbent, and such stains can penetrate deeply and be very difficult to remove. These tiled floors usually can be kept clean by wiping with a damp cloth or sponge, or water to which a softener has been added.

Q.—What is the best way to saw a thin piece of metal with a hacksaw?

A.—Put the metal sheet between two blocks of wood, clamp in a vise, and saw through both wood and metal. The wood will hold the metal firm, keeping the edges from bending with the strokes of your saw. Be sure your blade is inserted in your saw so that the cutting is done with the down stroke.

Q.—How can I remove road tar from the body of my car?

A.—Ordinary cooking lard works well for this. Rub it on briskly, using a clean, soft cloth, let stand for a couple of seconds or so, then rub it off.

Q.—What can I do about water stains on my hardwood floors?

A.—Rub these spots with a cloth dampened in turpentine or mineral spirits, using a circular motion while rubbing. Dry with a clean cloth.

Q.—How can I treat some musty-smelling tea towels?

A.—By boiling for several minutes in water containing two tablespoons of baking soda per quart. Then launder, using a bleach if necessary, and dry in the sun.

Junior Editors Quiz on METALS

QUESTION: How was metal discovered and used by early man?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Metals are substances, usually hard and with a smooth lustre, which can be melted and fused together by heat and formed into many objects we need in our modern world. Metals are usually found combined with rock, called "ore". How to get them from the ore may have been discovered as suggested in (1) by a hot fire being accidently made over metal ore, causing the metal to run out. Men found that tin and copper could be melted and combined into "bronze," which was used for the heads of weapons and gave a sharper and stronger edge than the old chipped stone weapons (2). The Bronze Age began in Egypt about 2,200 B.C. But men soon found that with primitive bellows they could pump air into fires, making them so hot they could melt out a stronger, much more important metal, iron. So we had the Iron Age, beginning about 1,000 B.C. This led to the development of machinery made from iron. It was discovered that molten iron could have its impurities carried off by an extremely hot fire. In the last picture, you see a "converter" tipped to one side after the last picture, "slag" is first removed. What is running out is molten steel the metal which has given us tools and is essential to modern industrial life.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Look up aluminum in an encylopedia. Aluminum and manganese often make substitutes for steel. The supplies of aluminum are almost inexhaustible.

★ ★ ★

Jerry Betts of Kerrville, Tex. wins this week's grand prize of a 15-volume set of Compton's Pictured Encylopedia, for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Reversed On Presidential Race

Democrats Spent More On Radio-TV Than GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic candidates outspent their Republican opponents last year for radio-television time, but Republicans spent more on the presidential race.

Statistics published Thursday by the Federal Communications Commission showed that the Democrats spent $17.8 million to $15.9 million for the Republicans and less than $1 million for others.

In the presidential race, however, supports of GOP candidate Barry Goldwater spent $6.5 million while backers of President Johnson paid out $4.6 million.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate Judiciary subcommittee has given unanimous approval to President Johnson's nomination of Thurgood Marshall as U.S. solicitor general.

Marshall, currently a U.S. circuit judge, said during 20 minutes of testimony Thursday that he would represent the government fairly and impartially in arguing cases for it in the Supreme Court.

Marshall, the first Negro named solicitor general, served for many years as chief counsel of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

—:—

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has put itself on record against a statement by Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., that it was weakened in dealing with a proposal by Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. to build a synthetic rubber plant in Romania.

Fulbright criticiized the department in a Senate speech Tuesday. He said it had failed to help Firestone resist pressures that Fulbright said ultimately forced abandonment of the project.

Birthdays Are Recognized By Senior Citizens Group

Fifty-seven members of the Senior Citizens Group who observed birthdays May through July were recognized at the meeting Thursday afternoon at the parish house of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.
